HISTORY OF HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT WORK IN PIMA COUNTY

Home demonstration work began in Pima County during the war when Miss Hazel Zimmerman was a district agent working over the entire state and holding extension schools, in clothing, where and when possible. One such clothing school was held at Sahuarita. A few 4-H Clubs were organized by Mr. L.A. Park, State 4-H Club leader, one at Binghampton and one at Rillito. After Miss Zimmerman's resignation, Miss Edna Ludwig was appointed as Home Demonstration Agent for Pima and Santa Cruz counties, working for two months chiefly in Santa Cruz County. The only report we find is that 11 hats were made valued at $108.50.

The present home demonstration agent began work in Pima and Santa Cruz counties Oct. 15, 1921 and has served continuously since with the exception of 1930 and 1931 when Sabbatical Leave, working for a master of Science degree. During her absence Mrs. W.H. O'Kane was acting home demonstration agent.

Early Projects in Pima and Santa Cruz Counties were meat canning, clothing, dress forms, millinery schools, nutrition work with school children, school lunches established, pre-school clinics held, home hygiene and sanitation, first aid, keeping home accounts and making budgets, kitchen improvement and work and time schedules.

In 1924, the agent was assigned in June for work in Yavapai County where she worked in 8 communities returning to Pima County, Sept. 1, 1924 as full time home demonstration agent. This was a much more satisfactory arrangement as it was found that one agent cannot cover such wide stretches of territory and do effective work.

In the early records we find that large numbers attended meetings but that there was little follow-up work since the same group could not be met frequently. More miscellaneous work was carried on in the early years this changing to more definite project work with definite results and records. It was also found that a large percentage of the attendance at the meetings in the early years of extension work was prompted by curiosity, later this has changed to genuine interest and a desire to adopt practices recommended also to spread the good news of the help given.

In the early reports we find records of means of transportation, to homes and to meetings, when we used horse back, horse and buggy, walking through the pasture and climbing up the mountain side after leaving the conveyance at the foot, and all kinds of trouble with autos which could not get over sandy washes, high centers or could not climb in high altitudes. Roads sometimes were almost impassible and wide detours were necessary, a contrast between the highways and improved roads of today, although we still have many desert unimproved roads.

Extension work began using the school as a unit and out of this grew the Keep Growing Project, a part of the ~~nutrition~~ program of the Western States and carried on over the entire State of Arizona. In a sparsely settled country this seemed the best way to introduce extension work. Miss Mable de Gomez, a Red Cross nurse, came to work in the rural schools, this in response to a request to the Red Cross Headquarters from the agent and supported by Pima County workers who were cooperating in the movement for health building. Growing out of the visit of Miss de Gomez, the Pima County Health Center was organized, the nurse thereof, Miss Minnie C. Benson, working with the agent from 1922 to 1930 when the County Health Department took over the work in the rural schools. Dr. Lillis Wood Starr, a physician interested in positive health, helped much in the Junior and adult health work, both in Santa Cruz and Pima counties during the years from 1922 to 1924.

Some of the difficulties in early years were met by conferring with rural school boards, presenting extension work, answering their arguments against the work and securing their consent in writing when nutrition and health work was done in the schools. However, we set the following goals in 1921 and 1922 and reached them:

1. A scale in every school.
2. The monthly weighing of pupils.
3. A Health Center and an opportunity to correct defects; those of tonsils, teeth, and errors in vision as well as incorrect posture.
4. Work done for positive health in each school in Pima County and school time given for attendance at clinics where corrective work could be done.
5. Health report sent home on the monthly report card to the parents.

The first pre-school clinics both in rural districts and city and the first discussion groups in Pima County and Tucson, were organized by the nurse of the Health Center and the home demonstration agent, working together assisted by Tucson physicians, dentists and educators. Shephard Towner nurses assisted for a few years.

The cost of some of the early school lunches were 1½¢, 2¢, and 2.7¢, the leaders reporting that it required "Careful buying" to keep the hot dish at this low figure.

4-H Club Work

In 4-H Club work, we note the small percentage of completions compared with enrollments, for example, 30 completed and 50 enrolled in 1923, the year club work began. Later we reached the goal of 100% completions.

Pima County held her first County 4-H Club Day Nov. 1, 1924 and has continued the annual event but the date has been changed to April since club projects have been done as a part of the school work, teachers, school boards, and county superintendents cooperating with the agent. The work of clubs and members as well as the interest of parents and friends has steadily increased throughout the years.

The Papago mothers on the larger Papago reservation followed the state 4-H Club Garment Making outline for three years, this giving a good understanding of the fundamentals of sewing and proving, in their group at least, that the junior outline is also a good foundation for the adult work as the Papagos have progressed steadily from the organization of the project in 1924 to the present time.

State specialists and other workers from the University of Arizona have given much help in all projects as time permitted. When the agent was working in two counties Roberta Sinclair, home demonstration agent for Yuma county, conducted millinery schools at Marana, Binghampton, and Jaynes in Pima County in Sept. 1924. Miss Sara Kerr did 4-H Club work in Pima County for one month in 1924 while the agent was on duty in Yavapai county. At various times during the early years the agent assisted in the work of extension meetings and schools held in Cochise, Graham, Greenlee, Pinal, and Maricopa counties.

The detailed history of separate projects has been given in the annual reports of 1932-33.

SUMMARIZED VERSION OF REPORT FOR 1933-1934
FOR THE WASHINGTON OFFICE

Work for the past year has followed the same plan of work as in former years with more emphasis upon the things which belong to emergency work. More stress has been placed upon economy in food and dress, remodeling old garments rather than making new, and in spending wisely.

In Foods and Nutrition, since this was an exceptionally dry year and we had even less garden and orchard products than usual, we did little canning. However, much work was done in demonstrating the adequate diet for both adults and juniors. Recipes were prepared, using those from the Market Basket as a guide, as a help in using less expensive food products.

In Child Training and Care the emphasis was placed upon Making the Home a Better Place in Which to Rear the Child and stressing the factors which can be handled with little outlay of money.

Home Management has dealt with home accounts and budgets and methods of buying for the home. Also, in time-saving methods of work in order that the homemaker might be free for other duties, such as earning or necessary time spent in preparing food and making clothing.

In Home Furnishings we have made articles from old with little outlay of money.

In Home Health and Sanitation home nursing has been emphasized in order that the homemaker might save the expense of trained help in the home when possible.

Recreation for rural communities has been supplied to twenty-two groups, the object being to provide entertainment at home in order that transportation expenses to other centers might be saved. While we have been on an emergency program all the way through, we have not neglected the recreation which is so essential at this time, neither have we forgotten that homes may be improved and beautified with small outlay of expense if we carry on our county-wide seed, plant and bulb exchange.

The Agent has assisted in every way possible the Federal program for emergency relief as stated. She has been a member of numerous committees and has given the benefit of her knowledge of individuals and groups, information which has been gathered through thirteen years' service as home demonstration agent in Pima County.

Progress in regular Extension projects has been gradual, but during the past year we feel that more than ever before our members are beginning to understand the value and scope of Extension work. We have more loyal supporters and can see results of work that has been done during the past years.

The progress in the emergency work during the year has been that of arousing more enthusiasm for saving and a spread of influence for real thrift in all the things that belong to the home and farm.

STATUS OF COUNTY EXTENSION ORGANIZATION

Form of Organization

The only change made in the County organization has been that we now have a County Chairman of our Rural Home-Maker's group, Mrs. W.G. Spaulding. Two members of the latter group are invited to sit in and listen to the discussions and reports of the County Farm Bureau, there being no state program as such for the women of the Farm Bureau. We have key women in each community but only one of these named in last year's report is now functioning in this capacity, due to removals and other changes such as serious and long continued illness of members in the home.

Our enrollments in each of the projects carried have fallen off, due to the fact that some have left the county, others have moved into Tucson and transportation is a problem with gasoline at 22½¢ per gallon. One car is made to do duty for as many as it will hold, all contributing towards the expense of the trip. While our numbers are not large we do have splendid interest and our women are better organized than ever before. We have continued to enlarge our territory, combining communities, since our rural population is so scattered. County-wide projects have been held in Home Nursing, Remodeling Clothing and in a Pattern School, since only a few in each community are found to be interested in these special phases of extension work. County-wide friendships formed in this way are valuable to the women as so much is learned from the exchange of ideas.

The Agent has made an effort to present home demonstration work to the organized extension groups as well as to miscellaneous groups working in the county in order that they might choose their projects in a more intelligent manner. Very little work has been done in the single unit or miscellaneous type of meeting as this has been found unsuccessful in forming permanent groups.

Function of Local People

ADULT LEADERSHIP - Although it is difficult to find efficient leaders, we have been most fortunate during the past year in our enthusiastic local leaders. They are learning to assume more and more of the responsibility for the local meeting. They have helped to secure enrollments, to explain the current projects, to arouse interest and enthusiasm for the work, to help in checking results and in finding places for meetings and giving local publicity by use of the school, Church, and Sunday School gatherings and messages sent by the passer-by. In some of our communities, as Altar Valley and Empire, we have no Church Sunday School, or telephone so the school and the casual visitor from ranch to ranch form the only means of communication with the homes far from the highway and rural mail route.

Pima County, State of Arizona
H.D.A.

The local leader confers with the Agent in regard to all plans for home projects and all matters relating to the work. These plans are first outlined by the Agent at the last group meeting of the year which is held in May or June. If it is possible for the group to make definite plans as to meeting places and time for the projects which begin in the fall, the local leader helps in determining these. She also assists in feeling the pulse of the group to ascertain when changes in plans should be made. Leaders in Pima County, selected by their local groups are as follows:

Amphitheatre and Flowing Wells, Mrs. H.F.Dail
Sunnyside, Mrs. Mayda Menzie
Marana-Rillito and Jaynes, Mrs. Harry Beggs
Davidson, Mrs. Eli Abegg
Ft. Lowell, Mrs. Minta Lusby
Altar Valley, Mrs. W.G.Spaulding
Empire, Mrs. C.R.Nalley

The same plan as in previous years has been used in having members sign up for the different projects. A definite enrollment with record of attendance at each meeting is kept. This helps us materially when checking on the different projects.

Due to our small rural population, the same women are often enrolled in all of the projects given in the community which makes it necessary to combine projects in all day or long half day meetings.

JUNIOR LEADERSHIP - With the exception of lone 4-H Club members and two summer clubs all of our work for the past year has been done through the rural schools with the teachers as leaders. The organization has come from a request on the part of the parents and pupils, in almost every case as our 4-H Club does its own advertising. When presenting an extension program to the adults the junior work is always included by the Agent as it takes both to make a complete community program.

The County Superintendent, of Schools, Mrs. Constance F. Smith, continues to give her best endorsement to 4-H Club work as she has become firmly convinced that it fills a real need in the community. We now have able leadership in all of the strictly rural schools where there are sufficient members of club age to carry on work.

General Policies

To cooperate with other agencies where they exist and to push home demonstration work where no other work of the type is being done has been our policy.

The Marana Woman's Club, the one rural club which we have in Pima County, has been assisted throughout the years of its existence by the Agent. It's formal organization grew out of the extension group which was formed in 1922-23. The Agent has always taken the responsibility of the Home Economics and Recreational meetings as well as the cultural ones. The Home Demonstration Agent cooperates with the Federation of Woman's Clubs and is chairman of the American Home, Division of Finance, for the Southern District of Arizona.

The Agent has assisted in the organization and in maintaining the programs of the rural P.T.A. She has given special help in nutrition, parent education and recreational programs. In turn, they have given their support to extension work. Help in the same line has been given to the one relief society which we have in Pima County, this at Binghampton.

Cooperation is given to the County Health unit in Foods and Nutritional lines as well as in establishing and assisting with the problems of the school lunch for the undernourished as well as for the normal child.

Cooperation has been given the Red Cross in their Garment Making program where ever possible.

The Tucson Press has given valuable help all through the years in publicity for Home Demonstration work. Both the Arizona Daily Star and the Tucson Daily Citizen have given much space to the typed articles and notices written by the Agent as well as to the weekly column of notes written by Club members and edited by the Agent. Examples of publicity are appended to this report.

The County Farm Bureau has been given cooperation by attendance at the monthly meetings and in other ways possible.

Saturday morning has been kept for office day. Special converences are arranged at other times when necessary but where field travel requires so much time and where a number of projects must be given time for preparation there is not so much liesure during five week days aside from Saturday morning, for conference and office visits. We have a good source of information in the Bulletin files of the office and answer many requests by mail and telephone as well as by office calls.

Pima County, State of Arizona.
H.D.A.

The Agent has been in past years, when time permitted, a member of the Tucson Woman's Club, the Business and Professional Woman's Club, The American Association of University Women, and The Saturday Morning Musical Club, a civic improvement organization. The contacts made in these organizations have all been helpful, but as the extension program has expanded, less and less time has been found for attendance at organization meetings. This is a distinct loss as the varied group activities give an insight in regard to the needs of women in self improvement and recreation.

PROGRAM OF WORK

Factors Considered and Methods Used in Determining Program of Work

When organizing a project the following questions have been used as a basis for determining the projects that shall be included.

- Does the work fill a definite need?
- Have requests been made?
- Is there sufficient time on the part of the Agent to add this project to the work already under way?
- Must other projects be neglected?
- Is there any over-lapping of the work with other agencies which would make the public feel that there is a duplication of work in the county?

In Pima County a change is being made from intensive work in Nutrition and Child Care and Training, to Parent Education and Home Management. Under the direction of the State Specialist this coming year, we are doing some work in House Furnishings and Decorations but have returned to Women's Clothing for the main project.

Other factors which are considered in the program of work are the scattered communities with their small population, the Mountain Ranges separating them and making circuitous routes necessary in traveling. The suburban population must be considered which is a problem by itself as their main interests are in Tucson and there are only a few extension projects in which they have any interest. We have Indians and Mexicans in our communities some being almost 100% of the latter type .

The program of work for 1933-34 is appended to this report. In both the present year and in the coming one we have considered the economic situation and have remembered our shifting population.

Time - Throughout the year.

Place - Marana-Rillito, Altar Valley, Avra Valley, Davidson, Ft. Lowell, Flowing Wells-Amphitheatre, and Sunny-side, all in Pima County.

FOOD PRESERVATION

History of Project

There is little to add to the history aside from that recorded in the previous history.

Progress & Development

The work has been done by means of demonstrations, questions answered by mail and with home visits and office calls.

Meat Canning - Following work done in previous years three demonstrations have been given on special points, as the use and care of the pressure cooker in meat canning. The change in computation according to altitude has also been considered using the tables as worked out by Professor Schwalen at the University of Arizona. The table follows:

Elevation Above Sea Level	Correction to be Added to Gage Pressure
Feet	Lbs. Sq. In.
1000	0.5
2000	1.0
3000	1.5
4000	2.0
5000	2.4
6000	2.9
7000	3.3
8000	3.7

From this table it will be seen that if the cooker is used at 10 pounds pressure no change from sea level up to 1000 feet would be made. But from 1000 feet to 2000 feet pressure should be held at $10\frac{1}{2}$ pounds instead of at 10 pounds in order to have the desired temperature. And at 5000 feet pressure should be held at 10 pounds plus $2\frac{4}{10}$ pounds, or approximately $12\frac{1}{2}$ pounds for the desired temperature at 10 pounds, and so on.

In preparation for emergency relief work two women were given training by the Agent so they might answer requests from ranches, but none were received so the help was not utilized.

At one ranch where we thought help might be needed the rancher found capable neighbor women who had been trained in previous demonstrations given by the Agent and the results were reported as very satisfactory.

At Avra, a new point of contact, a meat canning demonstration was given. This is a group of homesteaders who find some wild game to can and they were enthusiastic over learning how to preserve the meat when it happened to be secured in quantity.

The Agent taught one young woman who never canned before something of the art. She is having very good success and her husband is very proud of her. Help was given to her in finding some second-hand cans which will make her final cost much less.

All of the wholesale fruit and vegetable firms were interviewed by the H.D.A., but we were not able to secure prices that were striking. However, they said if we would take the products when they were very ripe they would give them to us at a much reduced rate. While this was not ideal for canning we made a fairly good product and the problem of feeding the family is assisted. We have done almost no canning of vegetables as there are none in the rural districts and they are too expensive to buy to can.

One club leader is doing some experimental work in canning so that she may be able to help her club members if the time comes when they have something to can in the community. Although this leader had never done any canning before she did very well by following instructions and with some assistance from the Agent.

By request of the Amphitheatre Pre-school Group, the Agent gave a talk and brief demonstration on food preservation. The meeting centered largely on questions as to the relative costs of the commercial products as compared with the home canned ones and also there were questions about difficulties which had arisen such as liquid leaking out of the jars due to variation in the pressure of the pressure cooker, or due to a leaky lid. Different types of jars were discussed, also lids. Different methods of taking care of canned products, jams and marmalades. Recipes for making jelly were requested and given out. Recipes for making commercial pectin at home were given, not only to this group but also to others. Recipes for different types of jams and marmalades were typed and sent to those requesting, also the correct method of making brine pickles.

Pressure Cookers Purchased - Two pressure cookers have been purchased by members who wish to use them for canning purposes. Where some counties report the purchase of eight and ten cookers during the month, we feel we have scored quite a triumph if we are able to report two or three purchased during the entire year.

Kraut Making - Kraut making has received attention from some of the women as cabbage was quite reasonable in price. Directions for making the same were given by the Agent and canning the product was also demonstrated.

Orange Marmalade - Orange marmalade was the subject for demonstrations. So far we have found no method more economical than the so-called soaking process which eliminates the use of Certo.

Strawberry Jam - Strawberry jam has required attention. We have been working on the same recipe used last year and have found that we have improved thereon this year. Perhaps this is due to the quality of the fruit, or perhaps to improved technique.

Other Fruits - A small amount of work has been done in canning apricots, plums, and figs. This work with women who have never done any canning and who wanted to try it to see if by any possible means they could save a few pennies. But at the present market price the results were not encouraging.

Canning Contests - Women were enrolled in a County Canning Contest early in the 1934 season, the contest sponsored by the Kerr canning people.

Women from Pima County entered the International Canning Contest for the exhibit at the Century of Progress Exposition 1933. The results were made known in 1934. With her limited supply of products for canning Pima County won two prizes. Mrs. Clara Hardy, of Ft. Lowell, won the Flash Chemical Company Prize Box, and Mrs. Anna D. Ahrens, 1941 E. Speedway, Tucson, won a Speedo Knife Sharpener.

Copies of publicity will be appended to this report.

Actual Results Obtained

Women report that less has been canned during the past year due to lack of rainfall. A considerable quantity of meat has been canned. A total of 226 quarts has been reported.

Outlook and Changes

We hope to have more to can and to continue to use means of arousing interest in home canning.

FOOD PREPARATION

Organization and History

These remain about the same as previously given with few additions. The work has always been an important project.

Progress and Development

Much the same outline has been used as during past years and given in the annual report for 1932 and 1933.

The principal change has been that we find much need for work in economy in buying and means of stretching the food dollar, therefore, all work has centered around this, and work has been given to all groups met including the juniors. Recipes have been given for many economical dishes.

The subject of Adequate Diet as shown by charts was discussed. Economical but adequate meals were discussed and menus for the same were given. Recipes were taken from the Market Basket. Where we have only the small homestead shacks in which to meet, we have found this a good way of demonstrating the economical menus; that is, to distribute the recipes, let the women work them out and then bring them for lunch to an all-day meeting. They are often quite surprised what they can do with different combinations of some of the so-called cheap foods.

A number of conferences, at least twelve, were held in regard to the CWA State work in nutrition as planned for by the committee to be given by Mrs. Esther McLellan. Besides spending much time in conferences with rural and city workers the Agent gave Mrs. McLellan all the help possible, the use of the office files, the special information in regard to leaders in the various communities. Some good work was done but the duration of the project was too short. Out of it grew, however, two very successful classes under the leadership of Dr. Gladys Roehm and senior students of the University of Arizona.

Butter Making - A butter making demonstration was given by Mr. Clyde F. Rowe, Extension Specialist in Poultry and Dairying, to the women of the Altar Valley community. The ranges were in very poor condition and milk was scarce, cream even more so, but the women were anxious to do their best with what they have. As some of the group have only recently become farmers they know very little about butter making as was displayed by some of the samples brought to the meeting by request. For example, one woman had not churned her butter long enough so it was only a thick whipped cream mass. Other difficulties arose from not thoroughly washing the butter. In a check-up on the butter making demonstration women reported that with the small amount of cream they had to practice with they had made improvement in their method of handling the churning process. However, all reported that what they needed was rain for the range in order that they might have milk and consequently cream for churning.

Bread Making - At Altar Valley, by request, the subject of bread making was taken up. The demonstration treated particularly the causes of success and failure as shown by samples of bread brought to the meeting. The making of bread was considered beginning with the yeast and flour and continuing throughout the process. This being an all-day meeting, the question of altitude recipes for baking powder mixtures was also discussed. The work which was given during Conference Week by the resident home economics staff proved most helpful. The Government bulletin on baking in the home was very useful in this demonstration, as well as some of the printed matter sent out by the commercial firms. A check-up on the bread demonstration revealed that women need more help on the subject so a follow-up demonstration will be given.

General Check-up - In a general check-up a number of reports have been collected in regard to the use that has been made of suggestions that have been given during the year. Favorable comments have been received in regard to the use of the whole or cracked cereals as purchased in bulk from the mill. Homemakers report that this has saved them money and they are convinced that the nutritive value is great. The Family Food Guide to a low cost diet consisting of the weekly food budget was also praised.

County Consumers' Council - Meetings of the County Consumers' Council have been attended and help given to the members where it is possible. We find that the reports from the U. S. Department of Agriculture and also the confidential ones sent out by the Consumers' Research are quite helpful in this project.

Cooperation with Welfare Agency - The new social worker, Miss Howlitt, at the Pima County Welfare Agency requested some help in working out ways and means whereby the supplies in the commissary could be better utilized by those people who receive them. This is somewhat the same type of work which we have been doing during the past year with the rural groups and also for the city work.

Junior Work - Baking Club - Work with the juniors consisted of one Baking Club at Sunnyside and two lone club members who also did the Baking Club work.

Actual Results Obtained

Work in food preparation was given to 96 women in 6 groups. Ten report that the help given in low cost diets along with suggestions as to how to vary the menu, even when using the same food product day after day, has been most helpful. Fifteen report that the quantities necessary for health and growth maintenance as given have been most satisfying to them as at the present time when the budget is being cut they were fearful lest they cut out the essentials with harm to their family.

We receive reports from the work of previous years to the effect that women feel they are feeding the family much better since they have learned to can at home and to buy in a more economical manner, 20 such reports being given. *--

Changes and Outlook

Few changes will be made except to use more short demonstrations as we find these a better method of securing new practices adopted than is the longer demonstration requiring a half day or more.

*-- Among these, that of the mother of Kenneth Hill, is of interest. Kenneth won the State 4-H Health Club Contest with a score of 97.7 points in 1934, this in spite of the fact that the family has been dependent upon relief agencies for the past three years. But Mrs. Hill said she had learned to make good use of the food supplies at hand and felt that this knowledge which she had gained through Extension work had been of great value to her in meeting the nutritional needs of her family.

The Amphitheatre Pre-school study group met Friday afternoon to take up their usual work for the coming year. A short business session was held and was voted to combine our group with parent education or study group. The program was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Fred Dail, who in turn introduced Miss Evalyn Bentley who gave a real good talk on different foods and vitamins each contained, also what foods there would be a shortage of, later. She states: "There is no need of surplus buying on account of shortage as there are only a few things such as potatoes, pinto beans, were two of the foods mentioned, don't worry because there are many other foods similar that we can use instead."

It was a very interesting talk. The meeting closed with a social hour in honor of one of our members, and lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. H. Messenger. Miss Bentley also announced that Miss Blake would be at Sunnyside district for the lesson of home furnishing and sewing and Amphitheatre is classed with Sunnyside this year. CANNING CONTEST PRIZES AWARDED

The annual state-wide canning contest open to Arizona adult Home Demonstration club members was held Tuesday at the University of Arizona extension offices, reports Miss Evalyn A. Bentley, home demonstration agent for Pima county.

Cash prizes of $20 and $15 for first and second were awarded by the Kerr Manufacturing company, Cochise county winning first place and Pima county second. Preliminary contests were held during October in the counties, the high winners in each county competing for state honors. Women receiving state prizes in yesterday's contest were Mrs. Gladys Busby of St. David, Cochise county, and Mrs. R. A. Land, formerly of Ft. Lowell, now of Sahuarita, Pima county.

Miss Frances L. Brown, state home demonstration agent, gave the homemakers present helpful instruction as to the things to be desired in canned products, also answered questions in regard to preparation of products and the process of canning. The comment of the women present was: "My, but I have learned a lot." Since Miss Brown has had a broad experience in canning projects in Kansas and Oklahoma, as well as in Arizona, she was able to inspire her audience with a determination to do more and better work in food preservation, it is stated. In meeting adequately the needs of each home food budget, this is an important project. Products entering into yesterday's contest were canned meats, vegetables and fruit and, according to the judges the exhibit of jars was most commendable and a credit to any state, especially to one young in statehood and agriculture.

Miss Bertha Virmond, home demonstration agent of Cochise county, came over for the contest.

Cake Baking Was Meeting Subject

Citizen 10-29-34
 "The secrets of successful cake baking lie in accurate measuring, thorough mixing and baking at the correct temperature for the exact time required for the type of cake." This was demonstrated to Sunnyside homemakers who met at the home of Mrs. Stella Nolan, Nogales highway, Thursday afternoon. The hostess used her individual methods which have been highly successful in baking and the final product as scored by the members was rated 100%, according to Evalyn Bentley, home demonstration agent. Much discussion followed the cake baking demonstration, members asking questions and attempting to find wherein they had made mistakes in the past, the majority agreeing that their failures had come from insufficient time spent in creaming butter and sugar and too high oven temperature or a too lengthy baking period which resulted in a dry cake rather than a moist one.

The home demonstration agent showed some articles for house furnishings, also toys for children and suggestions for inexpensive gifts which can be made at home.

At the meeting of the group which will be held November 22 at the home of Mrs. Mayda Menzie, members have been asked by the home demonstration agent to bring suggestions for gifts which they have received and which would be suggestive for others. At this time the agent will demonstrate some ways of solving house furnishing problems and will also show inexpensive articles which can be made at home to be used for Christmas or other gift events.

Those present were: Mesdames John Anderson, Beatrice Bondie, Minnie Bolin, Mae Buchanan, Alice Devos, Paul Klajda, Grace Korte, Mayda Menzie, Mary Miles, L. J. McKernan, H. H. Newell, Mary Sherman, Rose Trullinger, and the hostess, Mrs. Stella Nolan, and demonstration agent, Miss Evalyn Bentley.

CHILD TRAINING AND CARE.

Place: Ft. Lowell--Davidson, Amphitheatre and Sunnyside.

Time: - Throughout the year.

Organization and History

As given in the report for last year, work began in a small way in 1922 in cooperation with the health work which was done in the rural schools. At that time it was our aim to hold at least one meeting to which mothers and children were invited and at that time general problems in child care, including foods and nutrition, were discussed. We also held one county-wide meeting each year which grew into a clinic. The County Health Department now maintains baby clinics in many of the communities where we formerly worked. The project as it is being carried on at present has stressed the psychology and mental hygiene more than other phases.

Progress and Development

The third year's outline of the written project was followed with the addition of emphasis placed upon, "How to Make the Home a Better Place in which to Rear the Child". Problems of Family Relationships and Home Management have entered into the discussion, since they have a direct bearing upon the question of securing more leisure time for the solving of children's problems.

During the year we have cooperated with the rural Parent-Teacher Associations where possible. Two groups, Ft. Lowell and Davidson, were combined for discussion purposes, six demonstration meetings were held with each group making 18 in all. Homes and school rooms have been used for meeting places. Books, magazine articles and pamphlets were selected by the Agent and loaned to the members, as the Agent has trained women in each group to lead certain discussions. More interest is aroused by this method, the Agent supplying the material and guiding the discussion.

Publicity for the project has been secured through letters and notices to members, press articles, home visits and telephone calls made by members and the Agent, and invitations sent out by the school.

Aside from the subjects listed in the outline of the project for the third year's work as given in the 1931-32 annual report, we have discussed the following:

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS MADE AT HOME AND THE VALUE OF TOYS FOR THE CHILD - These have included articles which can be made for the home which will add convenience for all members. Toys for children have been included and this has been a very popular project with the adults as well as with the juniors in the 4-H Clubs. As an example, animal toys made from worn inner tubes and filled with crushed paper (quite often from banana crates), have been used for Christmas presents, as well as for handiwork for the younger members of the family.

SEX EDUCATION - Sex education was discussed in two groups with mothers as leaders who used material supplied them by the Agent. They also drew from their own experience and handled the subject very well. To mixed groups held in the evening so that both fathers and mothers could attend, the same subject was discussed by Dr. Clara S. Webster who has had wide experience in dealing with delinquent girls. Since the movies are in a way often connected with problems along this line, a Tucson minister, John Paul Pack, was secured to give talks to the rural groups on the related dangers as found in the modern movie. He gave some very convincing figures and sound arguments in a plea for better movies and a more thoughtful consideration on the part of the parents.

HOW TO SECURE LEISURE TIME FOR THE FAMILY HOUR - This was handled in the same manner as Sex Education, the mothers taking the lead and bringing out many difficulties as well as methods of solving them. One way of securing more time was by trying to make the kitchen more convenient. Plans were studied and kitchens visited for time and labor saving ideas. Interested members visited the kitchen and home of Mrs. Fred McCormick of Ft. Lowell, who has a very good kitchen as she has had plenty of money to carry out her plans and then to change them if they did not work. Her kitchen follows quite closely that of Christine Frederick who has written so ably on this subject in her book, Household Engineering. We have used mimeographed sheets showing the model kitchen from this book and the discussion on the subject. A number of the women have expressed themselves as finding it of great value in helping them to make better plans for their work shop.

SPIRITUAL VALUES IN FAMILY LIFE was led by the Agent, the mothers giving their experience. Some of the material put out by the American Federation of Women's Clubs was found helpful as well as the articles found in current magazines.

Eleven talks were made to groups outside of those enrolled in our regular project. By request, the Agent talked to the group at Marana about Child welfare work, the object being to attempt to arouse some genuine interest there. She also addressed the County Council of the P.T.A. three times, the theme being a report of work that has been done and an outline of the need for the future, the aim being to acquaint county workers with the project. All of the local groups were addressed at evening meetings when both fathers and mothers were present, the Agent discussing some phase of child care usually that of family relationship.

RECREATION AND ACHIEVEMENT DAY MEETING - The work for 1934 closed in each community with a get-together where tea was served, games played, and other entertainment provided. This was a part of our definite program as it is necessary to learn how to entertain the family and their friends. At the recreational meetings the summary of the work of the year was given, the members expressing themselves as to their progress in making physical and other adjustments to better meet the needs of the children in the home.

Changes and Outlook

The program will center around the subject of Family Relationships emphasizing better adult habits with respect to development of children.

The Agent has met with the Chairmen and Program Committees of the community groups and discussed the problems which must be considered in each community. There will be some repetition of the work done during the past three years, since new members are often added and old ones wish to discuss previous topics as new difficulties arise.

HOME VISITS - Home visits have been used to discuss special problems and to check gains. Quite often when in the home or when children are present at the all-day meetings we note changes that have been made in methods of discipline and other phases of the project.

Actual Results Obtained

While our enrollment was not so large as last year due to losing some members, we did have a gain in actual results. The 45 members who completed report that 40 have made some improvement with children of school age, 35 have improved methods of discipline, 22 have provided better play equipment or have in some way helped with their children's recreational period, 18 have made some adjustments to better children's physical needs, and 25 have adopted better adult habits in order to help the development of children in the home.

CLOTHING - Adult

TIME: Throughout the year.

PLACE: Ft. Lowell, Amphitheatre, Davidson, Sunnyside, Sells and Altar Valley.

Organization and History

Some work has been done in adult clothing since 1921 when the Agent began work in Pima County. The first work was that of making the paper dress form, then to this was added the use of the form in home dress-making. Later millinery was added, then some work in clothing selection and care, including shoes for health and comfort. However, with the advent of the clothing specialist, Miss Zella Blake, in 1931 the work was extended and enlarged. As the work progresses the women grow more enthusiastic each year.

Progress and Development

During the past year the specialist devoted her time largely to Home Furnishings, however, some clothing work was done.

The Agent organizes the groups, explaining the work, prepares and sends the notices, uses the telephone and home visits to stimulate interest and writes the publicity for the Press.

Meetings are all-day ones with lunch at noon. Two communities are combined when possible since the specialist can devote not more than sixteen days to each county.

A part of the program for 1934-35 will not be completed until 1935. Work in progress consists of Women's Clothing, six demonstrations at Altar Valley, and Testing Materials, Sleeves and Necklines, Ornamental Stitches for Decoration of Clothing, and the laying in of Smocking on the Garment, four demonstrations which will be given to Davidson--Ft. Lowell and Sunnyside--Amphitheatre, the four groups being combined in two. 18 demonstrations in all were given by Miss Blake in the project of Adult Clothing.

Tea for Members of Remodeling Clinic

Following the work of the remodeling clinic, a tea was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Fariss on January 17. At this time members who attended the remodeling clinic in November 1933, wore the dresses made at that time. They described their problems, told how much they had spent on their dresses and enjoyed the afternoon exchanging ideas on the subject of remodeling. The tea added to the sociability. Dr. Eleanor Johnson attended and gave a very encouraging talk as she said the women might well be proud of the work they had done. The following women were present wearing their remodeled garments:

Mrs. J. W. Van Camp, brown silk dress.
Mrs. W. F. Eastman, figured dress with flounces fagotted together.
Mrs. Paul Klajda, with a red made-over trimmed in lace which she had colored ecru with Rit.
Mrs. H. G. Nichols, a brown dress she had made longer.
Margaret Closson, showed the picture of a dress that had been remodeled for a sick girl and gave very good results.
Mrs. Fariss and Mrs. Robbins, wore the dresses which they completed.
Mrs. Ruth Winstead, received help from Mrs. Fariss.
in making over a plush coat into a short jacket.
Mrs. H. W. Vermillion, received suggestions from those attending the clinic and showed two dresses which she had made for her little girl as well as a jacket for an older girl.
Mrs. Darling made a dress for her little girl and trousers for her small boy.
Mrs. Mayda Menzie, wore a dress which she had made out of a jacket suit and although pieced many times looked very well. She was not able to attend the remodeling clinic, but was given help by her neighbors who attended. The same comment applies to Mrs. Newell and Mrs. Nolan.

Dress Form Demonstration

By special request from some of the women who have been in the clothing work, a dress form demonstration was given by the Agent. In the all day meeting three dress forms were made and the women present feel that they can now make dress forms for their neighbors if the requests come to them. Our work was very much hindered by the fact that none of the members present had the slightest idea of how a form is made, and also by the fact that they made the gauze vests out of old underwear and did it the day of the demonstration instead of previously as they had been instructed to do. However, after a long hard day the work was completed and the makers find the forms most helpful in home sewing.

Pattern School --Under the direction of the State Specialist.

A three-day pattern school was held at Ft. Lowell.
Twenty-eight women signified their intention of wanting to have a pattern made. In response to the questionnaire sent out two weeks before the school was to begin not so many replies were received, but still we had more than could be accomodated. However, on the morning of the opening of the school German measles and a series of accidents helped to prevent the attendance so that only 8 began. Then one baby was sick and the mother was unable to attend so only 7 completed.
This proved to be a sufficient number to move along at a fairly rapid pace. Where 16 are enrolled, as during last year's pattern school, the women must wait for their turn to come.
Home Demonstration Agent.
Pima County, State of Arizona.

CLOTHING (continued)

Women who completed the patterns are very much pleased with the results. They make very enthusiastic boosters for Extension work.

Miscellaneous.

Miscellaneous work is always given in reply to requests. For example, one woman, Mrs. Sanford, asked how to clean a panama hat. When told to use white talcum powder and a good cleaning fluid, such as benzine, mixed to a paste and applied with a brush, she was quite enthusiastic at the comparative ease of the process. Instructions were given in the morning and late in the afternoon she wore the cleaned hat with which she was much pleased.

Sewing Machine Repair

The Agent has given assistance in getting sewing machines in order in two instances where the women did not know what to do. This experience proves that knowledge is never wasted as many years ago the Agent met many problems of this nature in the ranch country where she was brought up and also on the Indian Reservation. During recent years when a woman's sewing machine did not work well she promptly bought a new one. This can no longer be done so the old one must be made to sew. Whenever we encounter these difficulties we realize we should make more of the sewing machine clinic as a regular project as nearly all women need more knowledge on the use and care of the sewing machine.

Illustrative Material

Some time has been spent in preparing illustrative material for the coming year. The Agent expresses her appreciation for suggestions received from Miss Burnell and Miss Ryan which will make a contribution to the projects in preparation.

Osnaburg

A large amount of osnaburg has been purchased by Pima County women. While a large amount was used in the House Furnishings project, garments were also made. Mrs. Vermillion made very good looking trousers for her boys and seven women made skirts or suits of the material.

Actual Results Obtained and General Outlook

Four hundred sixty garments have been made by adults and eighty-six remodeled, while four hundred forty-three garments were made by juniors, all under supervision. The knowledge gained in buying and handling materials and the general care of clothing far outweigh any results as to actual savings in dollars and cents although this also is considered in an emergency program. The county-wide interest in both the junior and adult projects is of value for future work as the project will continue on its own merits.

REMODELING CLINIC HOLDS DRESS REVUE

Star 1/24/34
A dress revue tea was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Fariss, North First avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Members modeled in dresses reconstructed from garments which were out of date or badly worn. By adding new or used material or reversing or "turning" the goods, up to date and very good looking costumes were constructed by the home sewers. Besides the dresses worn by the women present a short coat made from a longer model and a girl's jacket made from a discarded garment were exhibited, as well as dresses for the small miss. The cost was surprisingly low, some of the dresses had required only thread in the making-over process, others cost the price of lace for the yoke and sleeves or of silk for the bodice, the range being from two or three cents, the price of a part of a spool of thread, to four dollars spent for a new silk blouse which "dressed up" the made-over skirt.

Wednesday's meeting was planned as a culmination of the work done at the remodeling clinic held in November under the supervision of Zella Blake, clothing specialist for the extension service of the University of Arizona.

DEMONSTRATION IS FOR HOME MAKERS

Home demonstration activities during the present week have included a dress form demonstration given at the home of Mrs. M. M. Hale, Hale Road, Tuesday, where women met for an all day session. Three dress forms were made for as many women, Miss Bentley demonstrating the use of gummed paper used with the gauze vest, the form being made upon the woman then removed and mounted upon a standard making the finished form the exact height of the owner.

Sells home makers met Wednesday, in the dining room of the Indian day school. Problems in making articles for the home occupy the attention of these women. Quilts, pillow slips, bed spreads and luncheon cloths, all showing careful workmanship and good color combinations, are in process of construction and will be exhibited later in the year at the annual achievement event.

The home demonstration agent, Evalyn Bentley, showed some kitchen models including a folding ironing board, a folding table, iceless refrigerator, sanitary flour bin and a fireless cooker. Pictures of handy kitchen equipment were also exhibited in giving suggestions for making the kitchen more convenient.

Those present were: Mrs. Mira DeRhodes, leader, Mrs. Roswell Manuel, Mrs. Juan Mendez, Mrs. Delfina Pablo, Mrs. Emma Garcia, Mrs. Nellie Cochora, Mrs. Marjory Manuel, Mrs. Mariano Johnson, Mrs. Lupe Smith, Mrs. Hugh Norris, Miss Minnie Johnson, Mrs. Ramon Garcia, Mrs. Kenneth Garcia, Miss Clara Garcia, Mrs. John Mendez, Miss Margaret Closson, Miss Dora Larson, Mrs. Joe X. DEMONSTRATION OF PATTERNS IS HELD

Pima county women interested in making an individual pattern met for three days at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan, Ft. Lowell, during the past week. Miss Zella Blake, clothing specialist for the agricultural extension service of the University of Arizona, had charge of the demonstration, the school being organized by the home demonstration agent, Evalyn A. Bentley.

Women were enrolled from the various communities in the county and made a muslin pattern which solved many of their fitting difficulties, as sleeves were properly fitted as well as the waist. Skirts were made to fit, the proper length from the floor was taken and measured. After the muslin pattern was finished to fit the wearer, paper patterns were made and the women were taught how to modify the foundation by cutting yokes and making variations in sleeves. The cutting of the various types of skirts, those with numerous gores or with pleats and tucks, as well as a circular skirt, was demonstrated.

This work gives a pattern which may be used without further fitting and will save much time for the owner. The members completing were enthusiastic over the instruction. The pattern school follows the clothing work which has been given in the past and no more pattern schools will be held until members have enrolled and completed an extension course in clothing.

CLOTHING SPECIALIST SETS
DATES FOR DEMONSTRATION

The Pima home demonstration agent, Miss Evalyn A. Bentley, announces that work with the state specialist in clothing, Miss Zella Blake, will again be given in three communities in this county. Since Miss Blake's territory includes the entire state of Arizona, she can devote time to only three communities in each of the counties. The localities are selected according to the interest displayed, enrollments being taken in the order in which they are received. The work in clothing and house furnishings has been very popular over the state.

Work to the Fort Lowell group and the Sunnyside and Amphitheatre combined groups, which will meet at Sunnyside, will be as follows for the three all-day meetings will be given to each of the three groups:

Schedule Given

The first day will include a study of materials, an educational study of the construction along with simple tests, and the effect of sleeve and neck lines.

The second day's work, which will be given in November to various groups, will include an all day meeting of house furnishing problems.

The January meetings will be devoted to decorative stitches and suitable trimmings, including making individual patterns for smocking.

The dates for the October meetings are as follows:

Fort Lowell, October 8, at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan, near the Fort Lowell ruins.

Sunnyside and Amphitheatre, at Sunnyside, Tuesday, October 9, at the home of Mrs. Paul Klajda.

These meetings will begin at 10 o'clock with morning and afternoon demonstrations with simple picnic lunch at noon.

Since it is desired to keep the same enrollment throughout the demonstrations, all women who are interested are urged to be present at the first meeting of their respective group.

Altar Valley Listed

The Altar Valley women will take a course in women's clothing. This will include: Correct finishes for different kinds of material and for various parts of the garment; color, design and texture of material for the individual; line and design of garment for the individual; short cuts in sewing; important points in securing tailored effects; the commercial pattern, its adjustment and use, to include points in fitting.

The Altar Valley women will meet Wednesday, October 10, at the home of Mrs. Ollemay Hill.

Tour Planned

The county-wide tour of the work in home furnishings was planned at the close of the project last year. Since the communities are widely scattered, the first of these will occur Thursday, October 11, when members will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Klajda, Sunnyside, who lives south of the fair grounds and west of Hale Road, for noon lunch. They will then proceed to tour the Sunnyside community for the purpose of seeing what has been done along the line of home furnishings in the various homes.

MEETINGS HELD BY RURAL GROUP

Many Projects Furnish Interest in Home Crafts

Homemakers from Davidson, Amphitheatre, and Ft. Lowell met at the Frank Jordan home, Ft. Lowell Road, Monday. This was an all day meeting with morning and afternoon demonstrations given by Miss Zella Blake, state specialist in clothing. The work given by Miss Blake consisted of a study of textiles, this being an educational study including a description of the fibres. It was shown that a knowledge of the structure of the fiber of the different materials assists in laundry problems as in the treatment of rayon and woolen garments specially. The correct labeling of materials would help considerably in laundry as well as other consumer problems and all homemakers should insist that this information be given by the manufacturer.

Simple tests which can be made with samples were given for sizing, as in cotton sheeting, tests for strength both stretching and breaking, the latter giving special characteristics of the fiber. In the burning tests cotton and linen both burn with a yellowish flame, and the odor of paper with a filmy gray ash. Wool burns slowly with an odor of hair or feathers and turns to a gummy structure rather than to ashes. Weighted silk will burn like paper and retain its shape. Pure dye silk allows 25 percent of weighting but does not split. When burned it rolls up in a ball, hollow on the inside and gives an odor of burned hair. Rayon burns with a flash and leaves no ash like silk.

In the moisture test for linen, when ink is used as it illustrates better than water, linen absorbs moisture readily.

Sleeves and necklines was the subject of the afternoon's demonstration. The effect of square, V-shaped, and round neck lines on the short, as well as on the longer slim neck. The effect of beads in a choker line and the V-pendant were discussed.

The effect of dark and light colors, of puffed and plain sleeves, of ties and various shaped collars, capelets was demonstrated on the individual figure, the different types present serving as models.

Those present were: Mesdames H. Messinger, Laura P. Hardy, Hattie Stephens, Maurine Stephens, A. L. Moore, Alonzo Starr, B. F. Starr, Minta Lusby, H. M. Sharples, Mabel F. Knagge, Maude M. Mosley, Ivie Richardson, Beth Scott, Isaura Abegg and C. H. Oncley. Miss Zella Blake, clothing specialist, and Miss Evalyn Bentley, home demonstration agent.

The group meets November 8 at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan.

Much the same type of work was given Tuesday to homemakers of Amphitheatre and Sunnyside, who met at the home of Mrs. Paul Klaj-

Unique Furniture Made By Woman of Altar Valley Club

Citizen — 10/15/34
BY RUTH COWAN

The Altar Valley homemakers met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Olliemay Hill with Miss Evalyn A. Bentley in charge of the demonstration.

Along with the work of the day the members enjoyed seeing some of the home furnishing problems worked out by Mrs. Hill. The living room had been newly decorated and was voted most attractive. An easy chair and footstool made from bent pipe and wood, then upholstered, cost less than $1.00 and was comfortable as well as good-looking. The cactus garden with its variety of desert specimens along with rocks of interesting color gives a setting for the home in the mesquite trees. The cactus bowls made from old tires, wire, cement and rock kept the group guessing as to their composition until the hostess explained.

Color and line as applied to women's clothing were the subjects treated at the all-day meeting, with Miss Zella Blake, extension specialist in clothing, in charge. The effects of figured material, shiny surfaces, and bright colors were shown. Individuality and color also the general effect of clothing upon the wearer entered into the discussion. The women were interested in trying on swatches of materials of many shades and passing opinions in regard to the becomingness of the colors, as well as selecting lines and designs suitable for their type. Considerable discussion centered around problems which will be finally dealt with at the remodeling clinic which will be another all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Leslie McBride, McBar-S ranch, Wednesday, October 31.

Those present were: Mesdames H. E. Dill, Leslie McBride, John Van Camp, Nedra Van Camp, Thos. A. Terry, H. C. Keeney, Bessie Chapman, E. O. Hall, Thos. Ferguson, Julia Rova, S. A. Lay, the hostess, Mrs. Olliemay A. Hill, Miss Zella Blake, and Evalyn A. Bentley.

CLOTHING SPECIALIST SETS DATES FOR DEMONSTRATION

Citizen 10/2/34
The Pima home demonstration agent, Miss Evalyn A. Bentley, announces that work with the state specialist in clothing, Miss Zella Blake, will again be given in three communities in this county. Since Miss Blake's territory includes the entire state of Arizona, she can devote time to only three communities in each of the counties. The localities are selected according to the interest displayed, enrollments being taken in the order in which they are received. The work in clothing and house furnishings has been very popular over the state.

Work to the Fort Lowell group and the Sunnyside and Amphitheatre combined groups, which will meet at Sunnyside, will be as follows for the three all-day meetings will be given to each of the three groups:

Schedule Given

The first day will include a study of materials, an educational study of the construction along with simple tests, and the effect of sleeve and neck lines.

The second day's work, which will be given in November to various groups, will include an all day meeting of house furnishing problems.

The January meetings will be devoted to decorative stitches and suitable trimmings, including making individual patterns for smocking.

The dates for the October meetings are as follows:

Fort Lowell, October 8, at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan, near the Fort Lowell ruins.

Sunnyside and Amphitheatre, at Sunnyside, Tuesday, October 9, at the home of Mrs. Paul Klajda.

These meetings will begin at 10 o'clock with morning and afternoon demonstrations with simple picnic lunch at noon.

Since it is desired to keep the same enrollment throughout the demonstrations, all women who are interested are urged to be present at the first meeting of their respective group.

Altar Valley Listed

The Altar Valley women will take a course in women's clothing. This will include: Correct finishes for different kinds of material and for various parts of the garment; color, design and texture of material for the individual; line and design of garment for the individual; short cuts in sewing; important points in securing tailored effects; the commercial pattern, its adjustment and use, to include points in fitting.

The Altar Valley women will meet Wednesday, October 10, at the home of Mrs. Ollie May Hill.

Tour Planned

The county-wide tour of the work in home furnishings was planned at the close of the project last year. Since the communities are widely scattered, the first of these will occur Thursday, October 11, when members will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Klajda, Sunnyside, who lives south of the fair grounds and west of Hale Road, for noon lunch. They will then proceed to tour the Sunnyside community for the purpose of seeing what has been done along the line of home furnishings in the various homes.

CLOTHING DEMONSTRATIONS ARE SHOWN TO HOMEMAKERS

Citizen 10/1/34
Homemakers from Davidson, Amphitheatre and Ft. Lowell districts met at the Frank Jordan home on Ft. Lowell Road on Monday. This was an all day meeting with morning and afternoon demonstrations given by Miss Zella Blake, state specialist in clothing. The work given by Miss Blake consisted of a study of textiles, this being an educational study including a description of the fibers. It was shown that a knowledge of the structure of the fiber of the different materials assists in laundry problems, particularly in the treatment of rayon and woolen garments. The correct labeling of materials would help considerably in laundry as well as other consumer problems and all homemakers should insist that this information be given by the manufacturer, it was stated.

Simple tests which can be made with samples were given for sizing, as in cotton sheeting, tests for strength both stretching and breaking, the latter giving special characteristics of the fiber. In the burning tests cotton and linen both burn with a yellowish flame, have the odor of paper and a filmy gray ash. Wool burns slowly with an odor of hair or feathers and turns to a gummy structure rather than to ashes. Weighted silk will burn like paper and retain its shape. Pure dye silk allows 25 per cent of weighting but does not split. When burned it rolls up in a ball, hollow on the inside and gives an odor of burned hair. Rayon burns with a flash and leaves no ash like silk.

In the moisture test for linen, when ink is used as it illustrates better than water, linen absorbs the moisture readily.

Sleeves and necklines was the subject of the afternoon's demonstration. The effect of square, V-shaped, and round neck lines on the short, as well as on the long, slim neck, was displayed. The effect of beads in a checker line and the V-pendant was discussed.

The effect of dark and light colors, of puffed and plain sleeves, of ties and various shaped collars, caplets was demonstrated on the individual figure, the different types present serving as models.

Those present were: Mesdames H. Messinger, Laura P. Hardy, Hattie Stephens, Maurine Stephens, A. L. Moore, Alonzo Starr, B. F. Starr, Minnie Lusby, H. M. Sharples, Mabel F. Knagge, Maude M. Mosley, Ivie Richardson, Beth Scott, Isaura Abegg and C. H. Oncley, Miss Zella Blake, clothing specialist, and Miss Evalyn Bentley, home demonstration agent.

The group meets Nov. 8 at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan.

Much the same type of work was given Tuesday to homemakers of Amphitheatre and Sunnyside, who met at the home of Mrs. Paul Klajda, of Sunnyside. Those present were:

Mesdames L. J. McKernan, Mamie Menzle, M. M. Hale, Helen Lay, Helen Watkins, Ann K. Egleston, Anna Turnberg, Thomas E. Jackson, John Anderson, Mary Miles, Leslie Flood, George Petty, H. H. Newell, B. F. Colvin, and the hostess Mrs. Paul Klajda, Miss Zella Blake, clothing specialist, and Miss Evalyn A. Bentley, home demonstration agent.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Stella Nolan, Emery Park.

The tour as planned for those interested in home furnishings will be made on Thursday. The group will meet at 11:30 at Mrs. Paul Klajda's, south and east of the fair grounds near the Hale road. At 1 p. m. the group will begin the visit to homes in the following order:

Mrs. L. J. McKernan, Mrs. Stella Nolan, Mrs. R. G. Nichols, and Mrs. Mayda Menzle.

Women interested in the home furnishings project are invited to attend. Later in the year plans will be made to make tours in other communities where home furnishings work has been in progress.

Instruction Given By Evalyn Bentley In Clothing Work Citizen — 11-3-34

Pima county rural women who are "clothing-minded" have just completed the work of a remodeling clinic, according to Miss Evalyn Bentley, home demonstration agent. These clinics, with Miss Zella Blake, extension clothing specialist in charge of problem solving, were held at Altar Valley at the Binghampton Chapel on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Women enrolled in the clothing project for the current year were privileged to bring their garments for suggestions. A few of the problems were: how to make a dress larger when the owner has only a tiny scrap of material, where to take some from the garment to make the necessary enlargement, how to remove the flare from a circular skirt, how to make an old suit or coat resemble the 1934 models, problems of relining coats and making changes in sleeves and necklines, constructing garments for children from the discarded ones of adults and problems in sleeve comfort and consequent longer wearing qualities. The women were enthusiastic over the improved appearance in a dress, coat or suit when only a few minor changes were made such as the correct length of the skirt, a more becoming collar or an interesting sleeve.

When all problems are finished the members expect to display their garments at a tea where the final results will be found of interest. Members present at the Binghampton Chapel Clinic were: Mesdames C. W. Eggleston, Helen Lay, H. Messinger, Maurine Stevens, Hattie Stevens and Ruth Scott, all of Amphitheatre; Mesdames Laura Hardy, Amanda Johnson, Henrietta W. Jansen and H. Stock, all of Binghamton; Mesdames Frank Jordan, Mabel Knagge, A. L. Moore, C. H. Oncley, Alonzo Starr and B. F. Starr, all of Ft. Lowell; Mesdames T. E. Jackson, Stella Nolan, of Sunnyside, and members present at the Altar Valley Clinic, as follows: Mesdames L. W. Boyer, Bessie Chapman, H. E. Dill, Thomas Ferguson, E. O. Hall, Ollie May A. Hill, H. H. Kelly, H. C. Kennerly, Lay, Leslie McBride, Julia Rova, W. Spaulding, Thomas A. Terry, Allen Townsend, John Van Camp and Nedra Van Camp.

Homemakers Hold All-Day Meetings

Editor 4-13-34
The Sunnyside homemakers met with Mrs. Stella Nolan last Tuesday in an all-day session with lunch under the shade trees of the flower bordered lawn, reports Miss Evalyn Bentley, home demonstration agent.

The subject of the meeting was "Decorative Stitches for Clothing" and was under the direction of Miss Zella Blake, extension clothing specialist. Finished garments were shown, revealing the attractive touches which can be added by the home sewer. Fagoting of several varieties were taught along with the shell edge for hem and tucks, Bermuda hemstitching and clever uses of the blanket and overcast stitches as edge trims.

At Ft. Lowell on Thursday the extension workers were present when the subject was smocking and how to design patterns using smocking as a trimming. The group met at the hospitable home of Mrs. Frank Jordan, near the old Ft. Lowell Ruins.

The Altar Valley group met Wednesday at the desert home of Mrs. H. E. Dill under the distant shadow of Old Baboquivari.

The homemakers were shown appropriate finishes for garments such as the French seam, when to use it, as in garments which need constant laundering and are used for hard wear; the silk seam with its stitched turned back edges as used for tailored garments as unlined coats, the blanket and overcast seams for armseye, the flat felled seam for underwear; all of these were illustrated by garments or models.

"How to Secure Tailored Finishes" was discussed in the afternoon session of the all-day meeting. The importance of pressing from the right side, but with the garment protected by use of a heavy piece of canvas, then a wet cloth over it, the hot iron driving the steam through the protecting covering to the garment to be pressed, was discussed. The use of a brush for teasing or raising the nap was suggested.

The last of the series of meetings with the state specialist will be held Jan. 15 to 18 with the above groups. Those present in the groups were:

Place: Amphitheatre, Sunnyside, Ft. Lowell, and Altar valley, (Pima County).

Time: Throughout the year.

Organization and History

The project was organized in a formal way in October 1933 with special demonstrations given by the State Specialist, Miss Zella Blake. The work as begun in 1933 was completed with demonstrations and check up visits and tours in 1934.

Progress and Development

This has been outlined in part in the previous annual report. The remaining two demonstrations on Windows and Window Treatment and Methods of Upholstering were given in January to each of the three groups working with the State Specialist. The work will be continued during the coming year with two demonstrations devoted to problems of the homemaker. The textbooks and bulletins in the County Extension Office will no doubt be used as extensively by the rural workers in the coming year as during the past one.

The part of the Agent has been to keep the interest alive between demonstrations, to organize the groups for additional work and to supply information to those regularly enrolled as well as to members of other projects who wish some additional help in the line of Home Furnishings. Similar work has been given to some of the other groups not reached by the specialist. Suggestions have been given as to the use of material already at hand for draperies, couch covers, cushions or rugs. Patterns for decorating material and designing articles have been provided to more than forty women who requested help. The Agent has loaned her personal house furnishing articles for models when needed and she also has a small amount of illustrative material in the office for this purpose.

The House furnishings exhibit, especially as applied to floor coverings, from Sears Roebuck was used with those groups who have been working on home furnishings and given as a supplementary demonstration included along with the main subject of the day.

Although some work in rug and quilt making has been done during past years by the Agent and work in the improvement of both the interior and exterior of the home has been stressed, the project has never had the county-wide scope and enthusiasm as at present with the aid of a specialist.

ANTIQUES AND THEIR HISTORY - This made a very interesting demonstration for two communities, the members of the groups bringing old heirlooms and giving their history. In some instances this required much library research. The information was interesting and gave each woman a part in the meeting. We have tried to add some feature such as this for our roll call period and find that the women enjoy it.

Actual Results Obtained

Three hundred thirty-four articles were made in home furnishings. The larger ones included a studio couch and cushions, the couch made from an old single one with the addition of a back. The cushions were filled with cotton from the gin. Six orange crate dressing tables were made. Twenty-four cushions with springs were repaired by re-tying the springs, then padding and recovering with new material. Sixteen footstools using the methods shown at demonstrations and one hundred thirty-six drapes for the home were made, chiefly from osnaburg, an inexpensive material which is very durable. Forty-five quilts and comforts have been made and exhibited, besides other smaller articles for the bedroom not included in this summary. Two bathrooms have been repaired and improved as to equipment, ten wood-boxes have been built following suggestions given, six yards were beautified, eight foot scrapers for the back door were put in place and ten door mats. One magazine stand, four pairs of book ends, and two coffee tables were made, one table was carved with the paring knife. Sixteen very attractive hooked rugs were shown and ten crocheted ones, eight knitted ones, and fourteen made by various methods. Six homes were redecorated after being remodeled and four kitchens were improved. Paint was used on trellises in four yards, and six old floors were improved with paint and homemade paper pulp crack filler. Five cotton mattresses were manufactured at home using cotton from the gin for stuffing and osnaburg for covering following instructions given for sewing and tying cushions.

All of the work done shows careful work which bears inspection. That it requires time is revealed by the report of Mrs. Wetmore, who began in January to upholster under supervision her living room furniture. She reports that she completed the work in July and that besides her own spare time she secured the help of two of her neighbors who, along with her, put in three full days during the hottest time in July, "But," she adds, "I did not mind the work because for only $4.47 my living room set is new and fresh and is so attractive I have had many compliments on it. My husband and the children are so proud of it, too". Each spring was boxed in osnaburg, then securely tied and tied again and again so she now has what she feels sure will be a permanent piece of upholstering with an occasional outside covering. To encase separate springs in this manner requires yards and yards of material but a study and inspection of the well built furniture of long ago proves that it is worth while to do the work well.

TOUR OF HOMES - The homes visited showed many ways in which the project had been put to practical use as the discussions included both the exterior and interior. The attractive lily pool with its clear spray of water along with the shade trees and shrubs gave an inviting approach to one home. Since the kitchen window looks out upon the pool the small daughter remarked, "It is fun to wash dishes when there is such a pretty, live picture just outside". The interior of the home had recently been done over, the walls with their changing colors of rose, gray and green were admired, as were the simple drapes of osnaburg. At all the homes visited the treatment of the osnaburg material in house furnishings was noticed. Some had used harmonizing colors of bias binding, others had used yarn for decoration making durable as well as attractive furnishings which included window treatment for living rooms and sleeping porches, dressing tables, cushions and screens.

Rugs, hooked, knitted and crocheted, made artistic floor coverings and showed thrift since old material had been dyed and used. Six quilts, colorful and beautiful in design, were exhibited, also four bedspreads ornamented by the homemaker.

Other items noted were the clever use of bailing wire and orange crates in home construction of furnishings, the tin vegetable box on casters, the conveniently located vegetable--fruit cooler, a corner cupboard and other lovely furniture made by a skilled workman of the community.

Yards with their bright autumn flowers, the vines which furnished shade, the cleverly made stepping stones for the lawn gave ideas to the visiting members as seed and plant exchanges were planned.

The plant exchange as given under Community Activities might have a place here if we consider both the exterior and interior of the house.

A sample of mimeograph notice sent out following also pictures of some of the work done.

Outlook and Recommendations

The outlook for work of the same type is good and the same method will be used with change of subject matter as the need may be.

Ft. Lowell homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan for an all day meeting Thursday with a pot luck luncheon at noon.

The subject of the two demonstrations given by Zella Blake, specialist in clothing and house furnishings for the Agricultural Extension Service of the University, were "Window Treatment" and "Methods of Making Furniture at Home." In the latter demonstration Miss Blake illustrated by means of models the steps in making an upholstered foot stool, the method of separating old springs, then of fastening them to a foundation, the method of tying, padding and covering the springs were shown as well as the finished cover made from furniture upholstering material.

The home demonstration agent, Miss Evalyn Bentley, announced the pattern school which will be held for those who have definitely enrolled, Feb. 13, 15 and 16 at the home of Mrs. Frank Jordan, Ft. Lowell. The visit to Mrs. Fred McCormick's home next Friday afternoon, was also announced.

Those present at the Thursday meeting were Mesdames Lena Smith, Robert Kell, W. J. Lusby, Pearl Peuleck, P. C. Harold, H. S. Greene, Tessie Knagge, Gordon Hanks, C. H. Oncley, Alonzo Starr, L. E. Brown, Chase, W. Allen, K. A. Harold and F. W. Jordan.

GROUP STUDIES HOME FURNISHINGS AT OUTING

The Amphitheatre-Sunnyside home furnishings group met at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wetmore, Oracle road, Friday, for an all-day outing. Footstools and the method of making them occupied a large portion of the time as a number of the members are using the small stool as a means for learning to make other articles for the home, the principle of tying springs and padding being the same for all pieces which are upholstered.

Miss Zella Blake, specialist in clothing and house furnishings for the agricultural extension service, University of Arizona, who gives the demonstrations in this project, closed the series for the present year with a talk on "Windows and Window Treatment." The work in house furnishings will be continued next fall, the work probably beginning with an "achievement exhibit," Miss Bentley, home demonstration agent, announced, when the completed articles in furniture and those made from osnaburg will be shown.

Those present at the Friday meeting were Mesdames Mary Niles, Stella Nolan, Paul Klajda, H. H. Newell, H. W. Vermillion, R. A. Wetmore, H. E. Fariss, Cecile M. Byrd, J. Darling, and F. O. Holloway. Star 1/28/34

VALLEY HOMEMAKERS VIEW NEW EXHIBITS

Star — 1/23/34
The Altar Valley Home-Makers met at the Thomas Terry home on the Sells-Ajo road Wednesday. The members enjoyed the home, which has recently been remodeled, making a very attractive living room and adding other features which add to the comfort as well as the convenience. The reconstructed furniture, made by Mrs. Terry as a house-furnishing project, was also admired. At the noon lunch the home-makers showed their skill in the culinary arts, cottage cheese and butter being included.

The exhibit of heirlooms and antiques, along with their history, proved interesting.

The discussion on modern methods in the home laundry brought out many practical suggestions. Some of the points considered were the removing of stains, the soaking of clothes, whether or not to boil, how to hang on the line, is starching of practical value and the folding and sprinkling. Altogether, the women decided that the laundry presents many problems and that a discussion of them is of value in helping to make the work easier.

Those present were Mesdames W. Spaulding, H. E. Dill, Leslie McBride, Nedra Van Camp, John Van Camp, Olliemay A. Hill, Thomas A. Terry, Julia Rova, H. C. Keeney, Bessie Chapman, E. O. Hall and Mrs. Mayda Menzie of Sunnyside and the home demonstration agent.

The next meeting of the Altar Valley group will be an all-day one at the home of Mrs. Olliemay Hill Wednesday, October 10. At this time Miss Zella Blake will begin the series of six demonstrations in clothing for women. Two will be given on October 10. The morning demonstration will begin at 10 o'clock and the afternoon at 1:30, with lunch at noon.

Arizonians Take Pride In Homes

Citizen 10-17-34
A number of items of interest, were noted in the recent tour made of Sunnyside-Emercy Park homes, according to Miss Evalyn Bentley, home demonstration agent, and Miss Zella Blake, extension specialist in clothing and house furnishings.

The attractive lily pool with its clear spray of water along with the shade trees and shrubs gave an inviting approach to one home. Since the kitchen window looks out upon the pool the small daughter remarked, "It is fun to wash dishes when there is such a pretty, live picture just outside." The interior of the home had recently been done over, the walls with their changing colors of rose, gray and green were admired, as were the simple drapes of osnaburg. At all the homes visited the treatment of the osnaburg material in house furnishings was noticed. Some had used harmonizing colors of bias binding, others had used yarn for decoration making durable, as well as attractive furnishings which included window treatments for living rooms and sleeping porches, dressing tables, cushions and screens.

Rugs, hooked, knitted and crocheted, made artistic floor coverings and showed thrift since old material had been dyed and used.

Quilts, colorful and beautiful in design, were exhibited, also bed spreads ornamented by the homemaker.

Other items noted were the clever use of bailing wire and orange crates in home construction of furnishings, the tin vegetable box on casters, the conveniently located vegetable-fruit cooler, a corner cupboard and other lovely furniture made by a skilled workman of the community.

Yards with their bright autumn flowers, the vines which furnished shade, the cleverly made stepping stones for the lawn gave ideas to the visiting members as seed and plant exchanges were planned.

Among the homes visited were those of L. J. McKernan, Stella Nolan, H. Drummond, S. Hilling and Mayda Menzie.

HOME FURNISHINGS - PAPAGO INDIAN WOMEN & GIRLS

Place: Sells, Santa Rosa, Vantana, Topawa, San Xavier, Pescinemo, Covered Wells, San Miguel, Vamori, Poso Redondo (Pima County).

Organization and History

There has been little change in the form of organization as recorded in the 1932-33 annual report. The organization is growing better each year since we have the same leaders year after year and they understand their problems better, so it is possible to have a more complete cooperation.

Progress and Development

The work is done largely by correspondence and occasional leaders' meetings as the Agent can make only a half dozen trips to the reservation each year and then it is not possible to visit all the different widely scattered groups.

Package kits of illustrative material were loaned to leaders and suggestions about using the same given. Hints were made in regard to what should be avoided in combining colors for home furnishings, as well as helps in making useful articles for the home.

At the January meeting with the Sells group kitchen models were shown to the women and girls as well as to the older boys. These models included a folding ironing board, a drop leaf table with a substantial catch supporting the legs, a fireless cooker, and a sanitary flour container. Pictures of kitchens showing improvements which had been made to add convenience for the worker were shown. The Papago Indian women made house furnishing articles, such as quilts, bedspreads, pillow slips, luncheon cloths, etc, but were interested in other articles for the home and four homes made articles from the models of equipment shown.

The Papago Indian women and girls on the larger Papago Indian Reservation held their Achievement Day at Sells May 11. Miss Zella Blake assisted in judging the exhibit the day before and workers from Sells placed the exhibit. This was the tenth annual exhibit which has been held under the direction of the home demonstration agent and we were pleased to note that the mechanism of the project is running in a very smooth manner.

The judging and placing of the exhibit was done quite easily and the barbecue lunch was served to the 1500 people present very quickly. About 600 articles were judged and the quality of the work was found to be the best that we have exhibited at Sells. According to visitors, the quilts shown would have done credit to any community. workmanship and design were both excellent. We found the work much more even and those who have been scoring low are climbing toward the higher scorers. All this makes the work very satisfactory indeed.

Following are some of the articles exhibited: 24 dresses, 23 aprons, 5 children's dresses, 1 child's coat, 1 child's bib, 1 baby slip and dress, 1 crochet yoke, 5 men's shirts, 4 stocking patches, 2 handkerchiefs, 5 pillows, 3 pillow tops, 28 pillow slips, 27 hand towels, 25 tea towels, 18 runners and scarfs, 8 centerpieces, 10 luncheon sets, 4 table cloths, 1 laundry bag, 6 woven mats, 22 quilts and comforts, 1 bedspread, 1 baby's bedspread, 1 baby's quilt top, and 3 stuffed toys.

WORK IN THE PAPAGO VILLAGE NEAR TUCSON

The Sunshine Group. Since this group has a few members who have been identified with the projects on the larger Papago Reservation holding the most of their meetings at Sells, they asked to have some work done in their village.

At the December meeting one demonstration was given in repair of furniture, taking as a special project the repair of springs as demonstrated by Miss Blake with other groups at the November meetings. The Agent also showed how furniture can be made from boxes and one piece of furniture has been completed following suggestions given. The piece made was a chest of drawers which made a very good place for storage. Another woman started a kitchen cupboard which was made almost entirely from boxes and bids fair to be useful.

Other work given was that of repairing furniture. While the work might not pass the critical eye of a skilled workman, the Papagos were very glad to receive suggestions on how to repair chairs. In an all day meeting four chairs were repaired and made very substantial.

Simple articles which can be made at home and used for Christmas Gifts were demonstrated to this group as well as to others in the county.

Some articles of furniture for the baby and small child were demonstrated by means of charts. Suitable clothing for the younger members of the family was shown. Also, although it was not a definite project, the same comment applies to work done in food and nutrition.

The women of the Sunshine Group cooperated in the exhibit on Achievement Day at Sells, May 11.

The group is under the leadership of Mrs. Roscoe Fitzgerald, the Agent has met with them when she could spare the time, which was not every month.

Fifteen hundred or more people who met at Sells to celebrate the tenth annual exhibit and achievement day Friday of Papago Indian women and girls. The work was graded by Miss Zella Blake, clothing specialist for the agricultural extension service of the University of Arizona.

HOME MANAGEMENT - Adult

Place: Ft. Lowell--Davidson, Amphitheatre, Sunnyside, Altar Valley. (All in Pima County)

Time: October to October.

History and Organization

This has not been a definite project but it seems that the pendulum is swinging in that direction and that very soon managerial problems will supercede others. At present the work has been done in connection with other projects.

In the years since 1921, when home demonstration work began in Pima County, the Agent has done some work in Home Management. Home accounts and budgets have been stressed along with recommended schedules for home activities, labor-saving devices and convenient kitchens.

Progress and Development

During the past year 26 women have been helped in keeping home accounts. Books for this purpose have been bought at the ten-cent store, and the Bank of America in California and the Mutual Life of New York have supplied account books with very good headings and suggestions for the homemaker. The above organizations also wrote very helpful letters and gave some helps for encouraging the women in account keeping. One woman, Mrs. Lay, testifies in her report, that keeping home accounts has helped her more than any other one thing in better buying as she has a written record of prices paid and so has a basis for comparison. Another said it helped her a lot in finding if she had balanced her food budget as she could quite easily count the amount spent for the different food groups in the diet and thus know if she allowed the correct proportions as estimated.

Home budgeting of expenditures has been done according to the plan recommended by the Agent, this going hand in hand with account keeping and being another measure for stretching the dollar which must serve so many purposes. The 24 women living by a budget report that they find it a great help in cutting the unnecessary expenditures. As one woman said, "When the children understand that there is just so much money in a certain budget they are so much more willing to cooperate in helping to make it stretch".

Dr. Eleanor Johnson, Head of the Department of Home Economics at the University of Arizona, spoke to a group of homemakers who met at the home of Mrs. S. C. Lewis near Rillito. She gave a very practical talk on the subject of account keeping and budget making since there has been some interest in this subject, perhaps aroused by the enthusiasm of one member, Mrs. J. W. Hunts, who began keeping accounts when the H.D.A. first came to this county. She gave her testimony at the gathering Home Demonstration Agent.

ering and as she is very enthusiastic has been instrumental in arousing the interest which resulted in the gathering.

During the past two years there has been a county-wide interest in buying for the home and questions are asked in regard to the most satisfactory products and articles. The material sent out by the U. S. Department of Agriculture has been helpful to all.

Schedules for home activities have been worked out with 16 mothers but we are not yet satisfied with them although the mothers report that some attention has helped a lot. One woman said, "Every time I spend 15 minutes actually working on and writing out a better round of home duties, I gain that much time as I secure better cooperation from the members of my family when they see all written down just how I spend every minute". One question quite often asked is, "Do you think I am a weakling when I admit to my family that I can no longer do everything and that since we cannot afford to employ help I must ask them to help me?" Another mother asked, "Do you think it is too much to ask my high school daughters to help me an hour a day?"

Four kitchens have been rearranged according to plans given by the Agent. Small models of convenient articles have been shown these include a folding ironing board and table, a sanitary flour container, and iceless refrigerator. The charts put out by the Bureau of Home Economics have been very helpful in demonstrating the proper refrigeration of food, larger charts illustrating kitchen floor and furnishing arrangement have been copied from the bulletin, Convenient Kitchens, and have added interest to the project.

Home visits have been made to help members who are trying to improve their kitchens as well as other rooms of the home, all must be done with a small expenditure so it takes careful planning.

Mrs. T. E. Jackson is building a new kitchen which she hopes to use as a demonstration kitchen when completed which will be some months in the future as she is building as she can afford it, a little at a time.

Better Methods in the Home Laundry has been discussed, the request coming from the women. It was found to be a subject with many possibilities for discussion which included sorting, stain removal, how and why to soak clothes, preparation of hard water by breaking solutions, making soap solutions, the correct amount of soap to be used, whether to boil or not to boil, the temperature of the rinsing water, value of using starch and bluing, how to hang clothes on the line, the use of sunshine and shade and the manner of folding and preparing for ironing. Although at first it seemed a very common-place subject the women decided that much could be learned.

Actual Results Obtained

Besides the 26 demonstrators who are keeping accounts and making budgets, 98 women have learned at least some one thing about better methods of buying. Many reports come in about the money saved in buying whole grain cereals direct from the mill. Attention to brand, label and size of package is another item where many have learned to save. Forty-six women have learned to save time through time schedules, labor saving equipment and better methods.

Outlook for the Coming Year.

This seems to point toward much interest. The subjects already discussed will be checked for results and others will be taken up. The general aim will be to raise the standard of living in the rural home.

HOME HYGIENE & CARE OF THE SICK - Adult.

Time: December to May.

Place: Tucson, county-wide enrollment.

History of Project: Work along this line was begun in 1923. Work was given at Ft. Lowell-Davidson, Millito-Marana, and Flowing Wells-Amphitheatre. Courses consisting of sixteen demonstration lectures were given in the three communities, two being combined for each single group. The Agent organized the work, taught all work relating to food and nutrition, and helped with other demonstrations in which she was assisted by Miss Minnie C. Benson of the Pima County Health Center. Twenty-three women in the three groups received Red Cross certificates. The same three groups completed the work in First Aid, Miss Benson and Tucson physicians assisting with the project.

Progress and Development: Since we did very intensive work in this project several years ago and all of our rural groups took this work, as well as the course in First Aid, we have had few requests during the present year. A few from each community asked for the work, therefore, a county-wide class was organized in December 1933, led by Miss Anna Potter of the County Health Department. The Agent spent some time in organization of this project, visited the class and helped with the publicity and nutrition.

Actual Results Obtained: The 16 women enrolled completed the phase of work in which they were most interested. Four completed the entire course of 18 demonstration-lectures and received the certificate given by the American Red Cross to those fulfilling all requirements.

The project closed in April with a social afternoon.

Although the enrollment was small it was decided that the county-wide class was worth while. As the meetings were held in Tucson the equipment at the Southern Methodist Hospital was used and this added much to the educational value of the project.

The four women who have completed all of the work given are making good demonstrators.

Changes & Outlook: While this is a very worthwhile project, there is little call for a repetition of the course since we have given the work during past years to a number of the groups. When sufficient interest is aroused a county-wide project will again be organized.

Time: September to September.

Organization and History of Junior Projects

This is the same as given in the 1932-33 report with few changes.

Progress and Development

Our percentage of completions as compared with the enrollments still remains very good. Members are lost only by removal from the county or community. Our hand work has made steady progress as have the business meetings, the publicity, and music appreciation projects. Interest on the part of parents and friends has also increased.

During the past year we had one leader who had been trained in Home Economics. This is the first time we have had a trained leader, the majority of the others have never even had home practice in sewing. This makes the work doubly hard. Nevertheless, our teacher-leaders are willing and they soon become enthusiastic. We also have the advantage of having the same leader from year to year in many of the schools. The fact that we can meet during school time is another aid in a county where the members are so widely scattered.

A large percentage of our club members are Mexican and Indian. Many of our members are not in a position to purchase material. Although our requirements are as economical as they can be made, yet the demonstrations do require some outlay.

All of the clubs were visited each month, some often-er depending upon the need, extra help being given when necessary. Much assistance is necessary in demonstrations on better methods of finishing articles. Preparation of articles for the County Achievement Day has also been a part of our program. Labels were again typed in the office as this method of marking helps to make the exhibit more uniform in appearance. Help has also been given in the selection and preparation of program numbers for the County Achievement Day. It is the aim to select these early in the year. The Agent has assisted the Club members in the recreation problems; has helped them make plans for picnics and parties, and has attended when possible. At Sahuarita one of the mothers and the leaders provided refreshments and the Club had a very good time. Some of the girls said it was their very first real party. This is given as an example of what often occurs in these isolated communities as the 4-H Club is their only means of recreation.

During the Agent's visits to the Clubs talks were given about various subjects belonging to 4-H Club work, as we endeavor to keep all four H's in the minds of our members.

Stories and reports are checked by the Agent and comments made when the same will help the members.

Actual Results Obtained

Twenty-two clubs in ten communities were carried with one hundred thirty-three members completing during the club year.

Goals set and reached were:

- All members completed work as outlined in club literature.
- All clubs held local Achievement Day, and all exhibited at the County Achievement Day.
- All clubs completed one hundred percent.
- All clubs joined in the 4-H publicity project.
- All clubs joined in the music appreciation project.
- All clubs held recreational meetings and all gave at least one entertainment for the community.

Changes and Outlook

The outlook for the present club year is good. Carment Making Clubs in first, second, third, fourth, and fifth year projects will be maintained in six of the communities where work was done in previous years. It is expected that one or two new units will be added, also two projects in woodcraft.

The same general method will be followed as last year, we hope to have more leaders' training meetings.

ACTIVITIES IN WHICH ALL CLUBS PARTICIPATED

County Achievement Day

The annual 4-H Club Fair and program was held at the Pima County Fair grounds April 21. Exhibits from all clubs were sent to the County Extension Office where they were judged by Miss Zella Blake, State Specialist in Clothing and House Furnishings, who praised the work on the progress that has been made since she judged two years ago. After becoming acquainted with the leaders by giving them a talk on how to judge articles, she realized that we have a type of leader who is very earnest, but who has had little if any training in home economics work. Those who realize that we have Indian, Spanish-American, as well as American, boys and girls in our club work, know that there are many problems which are hard to meet.

The County program included the sports events in the morning with program numbers following throughout the lunch period and during part of the afternoon. The lunch was prepared by a committee of leaders with the H.D.A. assisting, and was served at a cost of 5¢ per club member with a charge of 10¢ for parents and others, and a few small contributions from leaders. Five hundred servings were prepared and by purchasing in quantities it was possible to make ends meet. The menu was Spanish rice, cabbage and pineapple salad, with peanut butter sandwiches, cup cakes and iced lemonade. Sufficient food was prepared so that all might have additional servings and also a lunch for the homeward journey, as many of the members have fifty and sixty miles to travel before their homes are reached.

This is a hard day for the leaders but the club members enjoy it immensely. To many of them it is the biggest day in the whole year. Since the number in attendance has grown so large it is very difficult to prepare the lunch for the entire group. Many conferences were necessary and much traveling about Tucson in order to secure the best rates from wholesalers. But we must add that all of the dealers contacted were much interested in our 4-H members and were very generous in helping to supply our needs for our bill of fare so that our money would go as far as possible.

For additional information about County Achievement Day see the radio broadcast as given by Vail club members which is appended to this report.

Sports and Games - The sports events which took place in the morning from 10:00 to 11:30 o'clock, were under the direction of Mr. Roland Bateman, teacher at Pantano School and leader of the Pantano Boys' Camp Club, and Mr. Rollin Burr, principal of the Sunnyside School, assisted by Mr. H. R. Baker, State Leader of Boys' and Girls' Club Work, and others. The winners were as follows:

Girls' Ball Throw (10-11 Years), Amalia Felix, Sahuarita.
Girls' Ball Throw (12-13 Years), Francis Anduaga, Pantano.

Publicity

This project was carried on in the ten communities where club work was done, all ten participating. Notes prepared by the Agent were used for training members. The Arizona Daily Star gave space in each week-end edition for the notes, made the members welcome whenever they wished to visit the plant to find out how a newspaper is made, and also acted as judge of the publicity at the close of the year which assisted us in making the award of places. The press report follows:

Miss Evalyn Bentley,
 Home Demonstration Agent
 Pima County, Arizona

Dear Miss Bentley:-

At your request I have, for the second year, checked the work of the various 4-H Clubs of the county as displayed in their annual press books. It has been a pleasure to note the real effort which the correspondents have put into their work and the steady advancement made by them in the manner in which the material has been handled.

First place for the year is given to the club from the SOPORI school for the general excellence and merit displayed throughout the year while the EMPIRE school is entitled to second position. Third place is awarded to the THREE POINTS school with full consideration given to the handicaps engendered by the small community and dearth of material.

Sincerely yours, with congratulations to the clubs for their really good work.

Our third year of 4-H Club publicity closed in October, 1934, and during that time we have supplied material from the club members each week-end without a single omission.

The silver trophy cup was again awarded for the work in publicity. The honors were as follows: First, Sopori; second, Empire; third, Three Points. By their own request Fantano was removed from the list so that their honors, those of first place, might be used on their score for the best all-round club.

Publicity books were prepared by Amphitheatre, Binghampton, Empire, Fantano, Sopori, Sahuarita, Sunnyside, Tanque Verde, Three Points and Vail. These press books contained the clippings of all publications of the club correctly dated and marked as to source. Kodak pictures and work of members were used to illustrate the books. Artistic covers were made and all books contained the history of the club work for the year, as well as some of the news of other communities. The work has been very popular with parents, friends and members.

Following is the score card used for the publicity:

LEAD: Aipling's Formula (What, Where, When, Why and Who.) -----	40%
GOOD ENGLISH - Clear, complete and natural ---	25%
REGULARITY AND NEATNESS OF COPY -----	15%
PRESS BOOK -----	20%
TOTAL SCORE -----	100%

Pictures of press books, winners and copies of publicity follow this project.

Music Appreciation

This project was carried by all clubs. Notes written by the Agent, which she compiled from various sources, were used as an aid to appreciation of the selections. The biography of the composer was used as an additional aid in better understanding and appreciation. The Agent supplied the records which were used for the selections for first, second and third years, and for the fourth year we used the song practice rerecords as arranged by Professor Fullerton of the Iowa State Teachers' College, and put out by the Victor Company. The portable Victrola given by the Saturday Morning Musical Club was scheduled along with the different sets of records.

Preliminary contests were held in each community and the winners competed for county honors. The County Contest, which has previously been held on the County Achievement Day, was held Saturday morning, April 14, at the Temple of Music and Art. After the contest Tucson juniors in music and dramatics put on a program and volunteer numbers were given by club members. This made a very enjoyable morning.

Winners in the County Music Appreciation Contest were:

First Year - Cayetano Vasquez, Sahuarita; Mildred Glenn, Three Points; Dorothy Rockwood, Amphitheatre; and Alice Mae Getzwiller, Pantano; all tied for first place.

Second Year - Lorene Ward, Pantano; and Ila Branon, Sahuarita; tied for first place.

Third Year - Lilly Lopez, Sunnyside; and Mary Frances Foster, Pantano; tied for first place.

Leaders' Conferences

Five leaders' training meetings were held covering different phases of our projects. Miss Zella Blake, State Specialist in Clothing and House Furnishings, gave the leaders some very helpful information in regard to judging. She helped them to see the correct way of making the different articles and gave suggestions as to training the girls to judge their own work. We are trying to have each club train its members so that they may be capable judges of the articles made.

At other meetings training was given in publicity and music appreciation projects, as well as in the matter of report keeping, record making, story writing and hand work projects in general. Plans for the County Achievement Day in April were also made at leaders' meetings, there being many details to work out for all of the activities.

Recreation

Each club enjoyed at least one picnic, and either a hike or swim, and also gave at least one program to which parents and friends were invited. A number of the clubs gave several programs. Whenever programs were given 4-H Club work was stressed by the members, the leader, and the H.D.A. if it was possible for the latter to be present.

H.D.A.

A Christmas program was sponsored by each club. Christmas gift suggestions were given to all the juniors who were quite enthusiastic and did some very good work, exercising the "H" which stands for "Heart" in making Christmas more cheerful for some of the needy in their midst. Plans for a better Christmas gift season next year have already been made in a number of the clubs, as it is found that beginning early is the secret of success.

Local Achievements

Local Achievements were held in each of the communities where club work was done. The H.D.A. attended the events and presented the pins in all communities except Sunnyside. The events were attended by parents and friends who were quite enthusiastic about the work exhibited of the projects carried by the club members during the past year.

Local Achievement Days were held in conjunction with closing of school exercises in all communities with the exception of two where they were held along with ball games in competition with other schools.

At these affairs it was the aim to have as large an audience as possible in order that they might learn about 4-H Club work.

County Awards

County awards are made after the work of each club has been graded, reports and stories scored, and general work of the club considered. The Extension Staff, as well as other friends of club work have assisted in the judging. The best all-round club in the county was judged according to the following score card:

Workmanship -----	50%
Interest and Activity of Club Members:
Publicity -----	10%
Music Appreciation -----	10%
Meetings and Programs -----	10%
Influence on Community -----	10%
Difficulties of Leadership -----	10%
Total Score -----	100%

Pantano won first place, with Sahuarita and Vail a tie for second, and Sopori third.

HEALTH CHAMPIONS - County Contest

In the preliminary contest for the annual State 4-H Club Week Health Contest the Pima County Health Department assisted in scoring the club members. The winners in health clubs were: Boys - Kenneth Hill, first; Charles Hill, second; Girls - Bessie Mortimer, first; and Lvalyn Barkley, second. All of these members were from the Lanque Verde Club, this being the only Health Club in the county.

Members scoring highest in other clubs were: Mary Frances Foster, from Pantano, for girls; Walter Thurber, from Empire, for boys.

State Contest - In the State Contest for Health Club members, scored by Tucson physicians, dentists, etc., Kenneth Hill won first place with a score of 97.7 points.

Among the contestants not belonging to Health Clubs Mary Frances Foster, of Pantano, won second place for girls with a score of 97.7, and Walter Thurber, of Empire, won second place for boys with a score of 96.6.

Help Given by State Specialists

Mr. E. R. Baker, State Boys' and Girls' Club Specialist, assisted in the work for County Club Day and transported the members to Phoenix for the May and November broadcasts. He also gave assistance in judging the work of the Boys' Camp Clubs.

Miss Zella Blake, State Clothing Specialist, along with the assistance of the office force and the H.D.A., judged the work of the garment making clubs which required two days. She talked to the leaders on ways in which they might improve their work and gave them some instructions in regard to teaching the girls how to judge. At the County Achievement Day Miss Blake explained her placings and commented upon the work giving the girls encouragement and also pointing out ways in which they might improve.

State Club Meet

The State Club Meet, which was held in June at the University of Arizona, Tucson, was a very satisfactory one. As is always the case, the H.D.A., who resides in the place where the Meet is held, found many extra duties, but where the Meet is so successful it is all a pleasure. Pima County had representatives from Sopori, Pantano, Vail, Sunnyside, Amphitheatre, Tanque Verde, Sahuarita, Three Points and Empire, which included 22 members, 6 leaders and 1 Agent. Binghampton sent two prospective leaders and after visiting Club Week were so enthusiastic they decided to have a summer club.

The playlet given by Pantano the night of the Dress Revue won very favorable comment and the program number given by Sopori at the banquet also won much praise. We feel that the 1934 Club Week was the best one held thus far.

IMPRESSIONS OF THE STATE MEET

by

Thelma Kinsley, Member
Sopori Willing Workers

"To make the best better" is our 4-H Club motto and we think we have lived up to it. Everyone said they thought this was the best State Meet yet. We enjoyed everything for we had something interesting to do every minute we were there. One member said on Monday evening, "They certainly don't intend to let us starve". Another said, "I think they are trying to make me look like a piece of overstuffed furniture". The food was just that good at every meal!

After the meeting on Monday afternoon we went swimming-- and was that fun! Then we enjoyed games and a good talk on the three R's at the Vesper Service on the Girls' Athletic Field. The three R's were: Responsibility, Reserve and Reverence. We then went to bed early and slept very well because everything was so quiet.

Tuesday morning and a good dip in the pool -- just the thing to start the day right. After breakfast we went to the Auditorium where we sang songs and were greeted by Mr. Ross, the Director of Extension Service. We learned to sing a new song, which is very pretty. It is the National 4-H Girls' Song, and the name of it is "Dreaming". Next year we will know it better. Next we went to a chemistry lecture by Dr. Roberts. He told us and demonstrated to us about oxygen, nitrogen, hydrogen and carbon dioxide. He showed us how the Brooklyn Bridge would burn and everything else, too, if there was no nitrogen in the air. He sent us off with a big bang made by putting nitrogen into a jar. He showed us some chemistry magic, too, by changing some colored liquids into other colors. Then we saw the demonstration teams.

We would not like to have the job of judging them because they were all good. The judges liked to ask questions and see if the demonstrators knew everything about what they were demonstrating. A little boy, who demonstrated about testing milk for butter-fat, answered every question. They couldn't catch him on anything.

After the demonstrations we had a free period. We had time to press our dresses for the Style Revue, go shopping and do anything we wanted to do. After another good swim and supper we went to the Dress Revue. All the girls looked very nice in their dresses and costumes which they had made themselves. We liked the little program they had too. Each county had some little skit, stunt or playlet. We next went to the Observatory to see the stars and planets. It was fun climbing stairs and more stairs and finally getting to the top and looking through the telescope. Then it was time for the party. This was only for the leaders, agents and senior members. We did not go to the party, but we had fun anyway. All the junior members stayed on the third floor and played games until it was time to go to bed.

Wednesday morning started with a dip in the pool. The water was warm although we had thought it would be cold. After breakfast we started on a tour of the University Campus.

The first clump of trees, which Prof. Thornber called our attention to, was the Italian Spruce. They put these trees at the corners of driveways because they are not only beautiful, but they do not obstruct the view for drivers. They grow in a tall stately column, sometimes a hundred feet high. This was Caesar's favorite tree. Some of the other trees, which he told us about, were the Chinese mulberry, the true Cedar, called the Deodar Cedar, which means God Cedar, the cypress, which was used in King Solomon's Temple, and the Kentucky Coffee tree (this tree is over 33 years old and is a slow-growing tree). We then moved on to the Memorial Fountain. This was built in honor of the soldiers by Mr. Alex Berger. It has beautiful purple waterlilies and a water plant called Parrot Feathers. The next tree pointed out was the weeping mulberry. This is a mulberry grafted with a weeping willow tree. The result is a very fantastic tree, just for variety. The Washington Palm, named after George Washington, is a native of Southern California. The Arizona Spruce is a rapidly growing tree and it grows in the foothills of Arizona. The Oriental Arvavitaee Lipospora is native to China, Japan and Asia. The Chinese Windmill Palm often grows to great heights. It is called Windmill because its leaves turn like a windmill. The Australian Beefwood, so named because the wood is blood red, is used for making furniture. It is sometimes called the Australian Pine. The Arizona Ash trees are a shade tree. They were left on the campus grounds to represent the past and the beginning of the University. These were located on the site before there was a University.

H.D.A.

Another variety of Italian cypress tree, which is a timber tree, grows to even a greater size than the Column Italian Cypress. The Canary Island Date Palm, which is found on the campus, is 30 years old and its fruit is edible. The Southern Magnolia does not grow well in Southern Arizona. When it grows in a colder climate it has enormous flowers, six inches across. The Chinese Schumas is very hardy and grows almost any place. It is sometimes called the Chinese tree of Heaven. The weeping Arborvitea is a slow growing tree. It is very beautiful. The American Elm trees are 20 to 25 years old and are very hardy. St. Johns has the largest elm tree in the State. The Chinese Elm is very fast growing. The Blue Palm is slow growing. The Japanese Oleaster has pretty lavender blossoms and is native to Palestine. It is sometimes called Monks lepper and Abraham's Tree. The Blue Juniper has berries on it to distinguish it. The Olive trees give the black olives which we like to eat. The Sago Palm represents the most ancient plant in Arizona. Thousands and thousands of years ago this plant grew all over the plains of Arizona.

We went on to the lily pond on the west side of the President's home. It had beautiful Mexican water lilies. They like to grow in the warm waters. The pond is built with black stones and is very natural-looking. In the pond and fountain in front of the President's home is a very beautiful lily. It is called hardy tropical hybrid lily and it is like a very large jonquil. The leaves are ten inches in diameter. This ended a very enjoyable tour. We would liked to have had another hour to spend in the Cactus Garden and Aviary.

We also visited the Mines and Engineering Building. It was very interesting. We saw the biggest diamond in the world and a horse with four toes; petrified wood, some meteorites and many other interesting metals and stones. We also saw a huge gold nugget.

We then went to a moving picture show. We liked the one about the Arizona 4-H Club in action best. The remainder of our girls came in at this time. We were glad they were able to come for this day. After dinner we formed a big "A" and a 4-H and pictures were taken of us. Then we went to the Museum, where there were all kinds of things to see. We saw stuffed animals of various kinds, among them a buffalo and a huge turtle. We also saw Indian baskets and pottery of all sorts and description. We next drove out to the San Xavier Mission. The Father in charge told us the history of the mission and it was very interesting. We came back, took a last swim and dressed for the banquet. The banquet was very nice and different clubs gave yells during the meal. After everyone had finished, they made a stage out of some of the tables and each county gave a short program. The ribbons for the winners of the demonstration teams, judging contests and dress revue were given out. At the end everyone sang "Taps".

We returned home very happy that we had been able to attend, we hope we may come again next year.

4-H Radio Broadcasts

Members were urged to listen in and to discuss the ideas gleaned from the 4-H work of other states. These programs were also commented upon in the weekly newspaper publicity written by members.

The Vail and the Pantano Clubs each participated in the monthly state radio broadcasts. The Vail Villagers 4-H Club had charge of the State broadcast over KTAR, Phoenix, May 3, and the Pantano Stitch-In-Time broadcasted September 13. The organization of material and preparation of members is a part of the Agent's work, the leaders cooperating.

At the Annual National 4-H Club Broadcast, Saturday, November 3, over KTAR at Phoenix, Pima County was represented by Mary Louise Echols and Mary Bejarano from the Pantano Stitch-In-Time, the former being the County Champion in Home Economics projects. Mary Bejarano told some of the benefits derived from the 4-H Club publicity project. Mary Bejarano has been the county champion in this project for the past three years as she has sent her notes each week, never once failing, for publication in the Arizona Daily Star week-end edition. During Christmas vacation and all during the summer recess Mary has always been on time. Furthermore she believes the work is of vital importance to her club and to all club members.

Original Playlet Given by 4-H Club Members

A skit written by the Pantano leader and 4-H members following an outline given by the H.D.A., was given to the State Federation of Women's Clubs at Tucson, April 5. The playlet was given by request of the State Chairman of American Home, Miss Frances L. Brown, who had heard the girls give their skit at the County Achievement Day program. The work of the girls won considerable praise from the Club women. A copy of the playlet, "4-H Club Memories", is appended to this report.

By request this playlet was again given on Dress Revue night during the State 4-H Club Meet, Vail members assisting the Pantano Club.

Summer Clubs

A Baking Club was organized at Sunnyside as the girls wanted something to do during the summer. Mrs. E. O. Watkins, mother of one of the girls, led the club. The girls enjoyed the work and learned much which was useful at home, the mothers and fathers being especially proud of 4-H Club cooking.

Two lone club members, Mary Louise and Lucy May Echols, did the work under the leadership of their mother and the Agent. The latter doing her part largely by correspondence and office visits.

Another lone club member, Marjorie Green, did the second year garment making work in a very creditable manner.

At Binghamton the girls' Garment Making Club was organized which was a very well conducted club. The girls were old enough to do good work. Miss Mary Rokahr, Extension Economist, Home Management, and Miss Frances L. Brown, State Home Demonstration Agent, visited the club in July. The following extract from Miss Rokahr's letter expresses her appreciation of the work:

Dear Miss Bentley:

Please express to members of the Binghamton 4-H Club my appreciation of their kindness to me when I visited them recently. I was delighted with the businesslike manner in which the 4-H Club girls handled their meeting. The girls demonstrated well that they were learning much through their club work, and that work and pleasure go hand in hand. You are to be congratulated on the fine local leaders who were in attendance at the meeting, and their evident interest in the 4-H Club program.

General Club Notes

PANTANO - First place as best all-round Club in County. Both the Garment Making and Camp Clubs did excellent work although Mrs. Bateman had the four full years in garment making which made the work difficult for her. However, she has some outstanding girls and all of them know how to work. Pantano had two older girls, 19 and 21 years of age, who have completed the work in the eighth grade but who joined the club and were very enthusiastic supporters.

SAHUARITA - Tied with Vail for second place. Sahuarita did just passing work up to the time when Mrs. Sarah Itzweire took charge after which the girls made a marked improvement. This is the first time we have had a leader who had been previously trained in home economics. Mrs. Itzweire was a great help and a source of satisfaction in the work. It showed us what a trained person can do with the Mexican girls. During the past years all of the work at Sahuarita has been very poor, of barely passing grade, while this year they came up to second place when the clubs were scored. Sahuarita had the distinction of having two boys in the garment making club and both did very good work. As they said in their stories, they wanted to join in order to show that boys could sew, and they also felt that they were going to need to use the knowledge they had gained.

VAIL - Tied with Sahuarita for second place. This club did very good work. The girls are not quite so energetic as those at Pantano, which perhaps accounts for the fact that they have not won first place.

SOPORI - Third place. This club, with seven girls, was a very pleasant one. The work was very even in quality just as the girls were quite the same in age and talent. The work was satisfactory in every way, the leader trying her best to learn along with the girls. She had had no previous training in sewing and is learning from the outline.

AMPHITHEATRE - Amphitheatre had good material as the girls were all American and capable of doing good work, but we tried the experiment of having three leaders since the group was rather large to begin with, and the plan was not successful. However, Mrs. Ethel Kitt, one of the leaders, brought them through during the last few weeks when they made a very good showing.

EMPIRE - The Camp Club boys did very good work, but the girls did nothing outstanding. Mrs. Downs was out of school at two different periods for a few weeks and this made it very difficult for the club to carry on. Two girls who were not in school joined the club and did the work with credit.

SUNNYSIDE - This club, like Amphitheatre, had mostly girls of American parentage and had a good chance, so far as members is concerned, to make a good record. However, they did not excel in anything. First year members were dropped because the leader, Mrs. LaVaun Rogers, felt that three clubs were too much work. Therefore, only the eight girls in the second and third year completed.

TANQUE VERDE - The Tanque Verde Health Club did very good work for a health club, but all feel that the health club does not have the same means of competition as found in the subject matter of the other clubs.

THREE POINTS - Perhaps this club had more handicaps than any other as they had American, Mexican and Papago Indian girls, some of the latter were past 18 years of age, only in the first or second grade and were wild Indians indeed as they had never been any place in particular. Graded on the scale of achievement they perhaps should receive first place in club work as they have covered a large portion in the scale of advancement since they began about zero. If it is possible for them to continue club work we feel they will make a very good record.

Reports and Stories

Reports and stories always tell us much in regard to the work that has been done. We have tried to help the members by sending a questionnaire along with stories which have been written by members in past years giving some suggestions as to what shall be included in the story. Representative club stories have been selected to append to this report. From reports and stories we make a few brief quotations:

"Club work has taught me to help as much as I can both in my club and at home".

"I like the club because it helped me a lot and my mother is very thankful that I am learning to sew".

"I enjoyed every stitch".

H.D.A.

"My mother was so glad to have me learn to do my own laundry".

"I helped mother darn and patch. She thinks it is fine that I am learning to sew". (The mother confessed that she had never learned to darn or patch or sew and had learned it all along with her girls).

From the secretary's book the following club activities were reported by one club which is somewhat typical of the others:

"Our club gave a Halloween party for the community and a thanksgiving program. We learned to cook beans on a camp fire. We prepared a Christmas program and made gifts for the members of our families who attended. We went on hikes to gather plants for our school cactus garden and took our lunch along. We wrote our own playlet for Achievement Day and gave it. We helped to make decorations and costumes for our school programs. We helped with the mending at home".

WHAT MY 4-H CLUB HAS MEANT TO ME
by
Pima County Home Economics Champion for 1934
Mary Louise Echols
Tantano Stitch-in-Time

One day, in the summer of 1931, my sister and I went to see a friend of mine, Mary Frances Foster. She took us into her room to play. As I was looking at the dresser, what do you think I saw? Two pictures, both consisting of a group of children who attended the 4-H Round-up June 1930. One formed a large 4-H, the other formed a Capital A. I had read just enough about 4-H Clubs to be interested. I was surprised upon seeing these pictures, but more so when my friend said, "I belong". I learned that there was a Garment Making Club at Tantano. My sister and I joined the club when it was reorganized. My! how we can look back and be thankful for that day's visit.

The first thing I learned in Clothing Construction was the hemming stitch. This has helped me with every dress I've made and in many other things. I next made my club apron and cap. I learned through this to master the sewing machine, sew on bias binding, and applique. By this time I was ready for simple patterns such as for a sleeveless dress and slip. In my second year, I made a pair of pillow slips. I designed my own embroidery pattern, and hand-hemstitched them. I was awarded second State prize. As we live fourteen miles from a village, I have abundant leisure time. During the summer months after entering 4-H Club, my sister and I made a sun-bonnet girl quilt. We were awarded second state prize the following fall. In my third year I learned several different finishing seams, to put sleeves in dresses, and sew on hooks and eyes correctly. The next summer I made a patchwork quilt.

I have served on the Garment Judging teams twice at the 4-H Rally at the University of Arizona. The first time, being only twelve, I judged with the younger group. I won second state prize as an individual. The next time, when I was thirteen, I competed with the older group in order that we might have two Pima County teams. Despite the age limit of 15-20, I won first place. These experiences and what I've learned from dress revues, have made me more critical of my own dress.

It is very essential for a girl to keep her clothing in repair as well as to construct it. An important art I learned is darning. This was a great help to my family, as my mother hadn't learned to darn. I also learned to patch. I can now keep my clothes in repair. I did my own laundry for six weeks. This experience taught me many things.

What My 4-H Club Has Meant to Me, (continued)

After three years of Jarment Baking, the Home Demonstration Agent made it possible for me to become a lone member of the Baking Club. This pleased my family. My father was especially fond of corn bread. The other breads I've learned to make are: muffins and variations, baking powder biscuits, drop biscuits, and pancakes.

4-H Clubs give an insight to beautiful things in life also. Music Appreciation was introduced in Pima County Clubs three years ago. The first year I joined the Fisher Music company offered a prize for the high-scoring member in the county. I won the prize, which was a victrola, for my club. The second year I again ranked first and received a ribbon award as no prizes were given.

The newspapers of Tucson began accepting news from 4-H Clubs. This gave us a chance to do some reporting. I not only wrote of community happenings, but composed poems and articles. This helped me in my spelling and English at school.

After two years of holding the office of President, I am able to shoulder the responsibilities of President of my class in High School. I was also Song Leader for my club. I now compose songs and teach them to my classmates.

I have attended two State 4-H Round-ups, and there I have learned to make friends. As a club, we have given many parties and plays. This gave me practice in speaking before the public. I have this fall taken part in a radio program, having made a speech in the interest of 4-H Clubs.

I believe it is the ultimate aim of almost every girl to become a homemaker. In my opinion, 4-H Clubs give the training necessary to be a successful one. I have tried to tell you what my 4-H Club has meant to me, but I feel that I shall appreciate it even more in years to come.

MEANING OF 4-H CLUB.

By MARY NICOLAS BEJARANO, Age 16.
4th Year.-Pantano Stitch-In-Time.

4-H Club gives us a good opportunity to make new friends, meet old ones, earn, save, win prizes, take interesting trips to Washington, Chicago, Springfield, Massachusetts; Portland, Ore., Kansas City or any city or other center where there's a Fair.

Another project that 4-H Club teaches us is to learn to enjoy nature books, art, music, good health, prepare for success and a happy life full of good and worth while things.

All these things represent a four leaf clover with the letter H on each leaflet, meaning four square development of Head, Heart, Hand and Health.

In my 4th year club work I have used the 4-H club emblem which helped me to improve my work.

The projects I made for the 4th year were as follows: A shirt, simple cotton dress, a set-in hand patch, one button hole and a lunch cloth for my household articles. They were taken to the exhibit in Tucson at the Pima County Fair Grounds. I got local and county prizes on some of them.

The next project is music appreciation, where you have to learn the title, composer and nationality of all the selections. In the 4th year music appreciation Berceuse (from the opera of Joclyn) by the French composer Godard, was the one I liked best.

The next project is Publicity. I have been a reporter for 4 years and I consider it can be the most important office of our Club, for good stories well told in the local press increase the interest and pride of Club members and sell the community on Club work.

Reporter is one of the offices I have liked so well since I entered the Club. Besides Club work, 4-H Club is teaching me how to preside well, to speak well in public, to win without bragging and lose without squealing, to be of assistance to others who may need help in their Club Projects, to learn to appreciate the best in music, art, and literature, to complete my project and learn to do my work neatly in order to earn an Achievement Pin.

I have three Achievement Pins which I like very much and I am very pleased and proud of them. I hope to get one this year for my 4th year work.

4-H Club also teaches me to render service whenever there is an opportunity.

At the Pima County Fair, where the exhibit took place, I helped to serve the food for the people. I also helped to make the sandwiches.

4-H Club is surely helpful to any school child, but some of us members feel lazy and do not realize how much 4-H Club means.

4-H CLUB STORY.

By GERTRUDE BEJLRANO

I am a fourth year member. When I had finished my first and second years I had graduated from the 8th grade and had quit school and 4-H work. I don't know what made me quit. Well, maybe I wanted to rest. So that year I didn't do anything.

One day I was thinking I would make a shirt. Right away it made me think I really needed to join the fourth year work to learn how to make a shirt. So I joined.

Now I am sure I won't have any trouble making another for the one I made in my fourth year 4-H Club won first club and first county prizes.

I surely enjoyed the fourth year and not only the shirt but for the set-in patch and button-hole for I had never made any of those articles before.

What I thought was most interesting for me to make were the shirts, dresses and quilts. Though I never had made a quilt, I surely think it is lots of fun to work with a quilt. They are only made of scraps and it surely saves a lot, besides they look pretty.

MY 4-H CLUB STORY

I became interested in 4-H Club work on the very first day I heard of it. Not for the plays and games but for the work and what it does for the members. The 4-Hs stand for Head, Heart, Hand, and Health. All of these are very important and that is what we want.

We decided to meet every Thursday and regularly. On the first meeting we did not do anything but plan what to do.

On the second meeting, we elected the following officers:; Virginia Hall, President; Hortense Soto, Vice President; Mary Louise Soto, Secretary; Hortense Soto, reporter; Eleanor Soto, Song Leader; Mildred Glenn, Game Leader; Natalia Ochoa, Yell Leader; Mas. E.M. Townsend, Club Leader.

On Dec. 22, 1933 Hortense and Mary Louise Soto moved to Tucson so we had to elect another Vice President and reporter and secretary. Eleanor Soto was made secretary, Virginia Hall, reporter and Mildred Glenn, Vice President.

We voted for the name of our Club as "Three Point Needle Craft." We took that name because the majority thought it suitable.

Our Mothers and neighbors encouraged all of us in our work willingly.

For Christmas the Altar Woman's Club gave us a pair of beads each.

The things I like best in 4-H Club work is the training I get. I had never become interested in sewing until now. I hope that I can be in the 4-H Club as long as it lasts. Everyone can improve in their work, also help the Club by having all work in on time.

In the musical contest, Mildred Glenn, and I tied, but the next day I was five minutes late to take the test over again, so Mildred Glenn went ahead and entered.

Virginia Hall.

SECOND YEAR CAMPING CLUB STORY
By JAMES HERALD PENNINGTON, Age -9-
PANTANO CAMPING CLUB.

The name of our Club is The Pantano Camping Club. I am the youngest member of our Club. My name is Herald Pennington. The officers of our Club are Ector Bejarano, President; Herald Pennington, Vice President; and Armando Bejarano, Secretary. The rest of our Club members are Frank Bejarano and Guillermo Faro.

In our Club project we studied cactii, grasses and flowers that grow around Pantano. We took field trips to find plants and study them before we drew or mounted them. I drew ten pictures of cacti and mounted them on colored paper. I also mounted ten grasses on white card board.

I had a better time at the Fair Grounds than at Sunnyside. We saw some old buggies with rubber tires; another with three seats and one with lights on the front of it.

I won two first prizes on my mountings of grasses and cacti drawings.

I was first in the 10-year old boys race. Frank won first prize in throwing the ball. Ector, Guillermo and I won third place in the boys relay race.

The Club helped me to learn the names of grasses and cacti. Last year we learned how to sew. This year we learned the names of many different Arizona plants. I like the Club because it helps us to recognize different plants and to know what good they are to us.

4 H RADIO BROADCAST
 PHOENIX--MAY 3, 1934. BY
 MISS ESTA TROTTER, LEADER OF THE VAIL 4 H CLUB
 Betty Woolsey, June Pettit, Gladys Schmitt, Members.

I have been the leader of the Vail Villagers, The Girls' 4-H Garment Making Club of Vail School, for the past four years. Every year my enjoyment of club work has increased-- due to the interest and enthusiasm of the club girls and their work testifies to this, as well as the cooperation of the leaders. Special credit is given to Miss Evalyn Bentley, Pima County Home Demonstration Agent, and Mr. H.R. Baker, State Leader of Boys' and Girls' Clubs.

Vail is a small village twenty-two miles southeast of Tucson, but like other little villages in Pima County, is big in 4-H Club work.

I am happy and proud to present to you Miss Betty Woolsey, president of the Vail Villagers, age 13, and Miss June Pettit, a member of the Vail Villagers, age 14, and Gladys Schmitt, another member, age 14.

Listen in on an interview in which June takes the role of a newswriter and gets some real information regarding the Pima County 4-H Fair from Betty, president of the Vail Villagers 4-H Garment Making Club:

June: I am writing a news article on "Notable Achievements of the 4-H Clubs in Arizona for the year 1933-1934", and since, of course, the Pima County 4-H Fair holds a prominent place on that list, I should like to have some first hand information concerning it.

Betty:- I shall be glad to give you any information you wish.

June:- Thank you, Miss Woolsey. What was the date of the Pima County 4-H Fair?

Betty:- Saturday, April 21, 1934.

June:- Where was it held?

Betty:- This year the Fair was held at the Southern Arizona Fair grounds, near Tucson. In previous years it was held in one of the Pima County schools, but this year, because of the increased membership and interest, it was necessary to "charter" the fair grounds. The Fair was attended by over 500 people, who were enthusiastic over the work which is being done by the 4-H Clubs. Some of these visitors are well acquainted with 4-H Club work as done in other states and so were well qualified to judge.

June:- Under whose direction was the fair?

Betty:- Under the direction of Miss Evalyn A. Bentley, Pima Co. Home Demonstration Agent.

June:- How many clubs were represented?

H.D.A.
 Pima County, State of Arizona

4-H Radio Broadcast, Phoenix.(Continued)

Betty:- Ten-- eight girls' clubs for the first, second, third, and fourth years' work in Garment Making, Handcraft, and Health; and two boys' clubs.

June:- How were the plans formulated?

Betty:- At the beginning of the club year in the fall Miss Bentley and the leaders made tentative plans which were modified as the year and the work progressed.

June:- Who graded the exhibits that were displayed?

Betty:- Miss Zella Blake, clothing specialist at the University of Arizona Agricultural Extension Service. The work of the individual clubs was first graded. Then the best work in each club competed for county awards. Grading the exhibit gave an opportunity to make more awards.

June:- What were Miss Blake's comments on the work?

Betty:- Miss Blake stated that she found "the work had made remarkable progress due to the efforts of the club members, the various leaders of the clubs, and to that of the county Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Bentley.

June:- Please briefly give me an outline of the program for the day.

Betty:- At ten o'clock all exhibits were in place at the fair grounds and competitive races and other sports events were held on the field under the direction of Mr. Roland Bateman, leader of the Pantano Boys' Camp Club, and Mr. Rollin Burr, principal of the Sunnyside School, assisted by Mr. H.R. Baker, state leader of boys' and girls' club work.

From 12 to 1 was the lunch hour. During that time three clubs entertained with vocal and instrumental music.

June:- Pardon the interruption, but I should like to know the menu and who planned it.

Betty:- The menu was cabbage and pineapple salad, spanish rice, sandwiches, cup cakes and iced lemonade. It was planned by a committee of leaders and was served by the leaders and club members.

In the afternoon county awards were presented to the winners in a music memory and appreciation contest which had been held at the Temple of Music & Art in Tucson, April 14. The club girls gave a dress revue in which the girls modeled in the dresses they had made, and a continuous/program of stunts, songs, yells, and brief talks was given. The stunts were voted on and those of Sopori and Sahuarita tied for first place, but later the tie was broken and Sopori was given first.

At 4 o'clock everybody, tired but happy, began their trek homeward, in automobiles, trucks, school buses, and several on horse-back. Now the boys and girls are making plans for and looking forward to an even bigger and better fair in 1935. Miss Pettit, why not come next year and see for yourself? Meet me at the fair!

H.D.A.
Pima County, State of Arizona

June:- Thank you, Miss Woolsey, I will meet you at the Pima County 4-H Fair in 1935. I don't want to miss it.

Miss Bentley is here and I want her to say a few words to you. This is Miss Bentley, our Pima County Home Demonstration Agent.

During the year there has been much to hearten us as leaders and members have mastered problems with true courage while pressing on towards the goal of one hundred percent completions. More interest in our projects has been shown by parents and friends who give evidence of their faith in our club work which, through the training of the hand, heart, head and health, prepares our boys and girls for life and its work.

Confidence in our work is increased when the adults see at our county-wide exhibit the neat stitches of the ten year old girls, the dresses which the eleven year olds so proudly wear and the work done by the boys in the camp clubs.

We appreciate this faith of the public in 4-H Club work, and faith has a place in our emblem, the four leaf clover--

One leaf is for hope and one is for faith,

And one is for love you know;

And God put another in for luck,

If you search you will find where they grow.

But you must have hope and you must have faith;

You must love and be strong, and so-

If you work, if you wait, you will find the place

Where the four-leaf clovers grow.

ANNUAL 4-H BROADCAST
Nov. 3, 1934.
K.T.A.R. - PHOENIX

The annual 4-h Broadcast over K.T.A.R., Phoenix, Saturday, Nov. 3d to Pima County members took part in the National hookup. Mary Louise Echols, County champion in Home Economics projects, has completed three years work in Garment Making, one year in the Baking Club. Throughout her years of Club work, she has been a booster and real worker as well as an officer.

Mary Bejarano is our champion reporter. For the past three years she has not missed a single week of having her notes in the County Extension office in time to be typed for the week-end edition of the Arizona Daily Star. Mary is a booster for publicity work and believes that it takes publicity to put a community on the map. This she has done for Pantano. Aside from her reporting she has been a worker in the Pantano Stitch-in-Time, an officer, and booster for club work.

MY EXPERIENCE WITH THE 4-H BAKING CLUB
Radio Talk by Mary Louise Echols.

My sister and I had just returned from Texas last summer when we found a letter awaiting us from our County Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Evalyn Bentley. She had made arrangements for us to become lone members of the 4-H Baking Club. We had many times wished for such an opportunity. So we began taking turns helping mother with the baking.

We started with the bread our father likes best--corn bread. We had made this before but the family enjoys that made by the 4-H recipe much more. At first we followed the directions carefully, but we have made it so often, we now have it snugly stored in our heads.

We chose as our second demonstration one which seemed the simplest of all--plain muffins. They were really an addition to our home baking for mother only made them in the form of cakes. We also made All-bran and corn meal muffins.

The hardest thing about making pancakes was having to get out of bed so early to make them for breakfast. Mother says that 4-H pancakes are the lightest that she has ever eaten.

We saved the biscuits until last because we knew that it would take more time to learn to knead the dough gently. One morning when I had used too much liquid for my drop biscuits, my daddy said he supposed I dropped my dough too far.

Competition was keen between us for as each demonstration was completed it was placed on the table and graded according to our 4-H cook books.

I have completed three years work with the 4-H Garment Making Club, one year with the Baking Club, and have started my first year of canning. During this school term I shall continue my Garment Making Project and next summer take up my baking and canning again.

PUBLICITY FACTS
RADIO TALK BY Mary C. Bejarano

In Pima County we have had a County 4-H Club reporting project for 3 years. Our news notes are published in the week-end edition of one of the Tucson daily papers. I have been reporter for our club, the Pantano Stitch-in-Time.

Miss Lvalyn A. Bentley, our home demonstration agent, calls me "Champion reporter", for during these three years I have not failed to have my news notes in each week.

I am going to give you some essential points in club reporting.

In writing news begin the story by telling what the story is about.

The opening paragraph or lead is the most important part of the news story.

Tell the reader the nature of event, the persons, and the things concerned, time, place, cause, and results.

Answer these questions: What, who, when, Where, why and how?

Tell your story simply and naturally. Make it brief, clear, and accurate.

Write events in your story in order of their news value.

Always have the best interest of your community or your club at heart. Find stories that will help to boost their welfare.

In news writing tell the truth and verify every statement to make sure it is absolutely correct.

Study your stories after they are printed to see if the editor made any changes.

Read stories other than your own, and study the way they are written.

Be regular and prompt in sending in your stories. We should always take pains to give exact information and facts. It is always a good idea to include as many names as possible in a story, especially names of local people.

I think that a 4-H Club News Reporter can have a wonderful opportunity to accomplish good results both for himself and his club, also for his community. I feel that the office of reporter is a very important one for it is through club news notes that community interest is gained.

New members also are gained by becoming interested through news notes. So it behooves a club reporter to do his best at all times.

4-H CLUB MEMORIES

(Given by Florence Bateman and 4-H Club Girls--the Pantano Stitch-in-Time Club--at the local and County Achievement Day programs, and by request to the State meeting of Federated Women's Clubs in Tucson Thursday morning April 5, 1934, and at the State Club Week Tuesday evening, June 5, 1934)

(Scene at a Boarding School)

Mary Frances - How are you getting along with your sewing, Betty?

Betty - Very well. You know we are doing some of the very things here in college that we did at Pantano, Pima County, in our Third Year 4-H Club.

Mary Frances - Oh, you are! What are some of those things?

Betty - Just at present we are studying Selection and Care of Clothing. Do you remember when we talked about that in 4-H Club and how we studied our own type? Remember, Mary Frances, how we used you for the tall, slender model, and I was the fat model? I learned that I shouldn't wear short dresses with dozens of ruffles, but longer ones and plainer. I made this dress I have on, don't you think it makes me look more slender?

Mary Frances - Yes, it's very becoming.

Betty - My 4-H Club has surely helped me in my sewing class.

Mary Frances - Well, I wonder if the other girls have remembered as many things as you have? Let's see, this is Saturday and classes are over early. I imagine they'll all be here for some bits of gossip. (Knock) There's someone now. Come in. (Enter Mary Louise)

Mary Louise - Well, classes are over for the day! Hurrah!

Mary Frances - Betty and I were just thinking about all of you girls. We were wondering if you remember your 4-H Club days.

Mary Louise - I surely do! I just received my paper from my Music Appreciation test and I got a One! We were asked about some of the very same selections we had in our County Music Appreciation Contests in 1932-33. For instance, Minuet in G by Beethoven, and Souvenir by Drdla. It reminded me of the contest when I won the victrola for our school.

H.D.A.
Pima County, State of Arizona

Mary Frances - Oh, yes! I remember our Music Appreciation and that victrola, and how it helped us later. Just last week I attended a concert. How happy I was when I recognized some of the selections! They played "Le Cygne", by the French Composer, Saint Saens, and Melody in F, by Rubinstein. I know we enjoy music more when we are familiar with it and know something of the composer. But have your 4-H Club days helped you in any other way?

Mary Louise - They surely have. I've learned how to look just as nice as the other girls at school and with half the money they spend for clothes. This jumper of mine, which Mother and I planned, is surely a dandy. I wear a new blouse and every one says, "Why, you have a new dress". And it's so easy to keep pressed. "Well pressed is well dressed", you know.

Mary Frances - It surely is a serviceable school dress.

Mary Louise - Do you remember when we selected our school clothes and we all decided to wear low-heeled oxfords to school? Well, I saw a girl today who should have been a 4-H Club girl! She was late for class--here she came, in French heels--running pell-mell down the steps. She stumbled, fell and hurt herself badly. (Knock).

Mary Frances - Come in.

(Enter Lorene)

Lorene - Well, girls, how do I look? I'm going to a birthday party.

Mary Frances - Nice and neat as a pin. That dress is very becoming. Color is another thing we studied in 4-H Club. Lorene knows that girls with brown eyes like hers can wear lots of color.

Lorene - Mother and I made this dress and it cost only half as much as one almost like it that we saw in a shop window. If I look all right, I must run along or I'll be late. Good-bye. (Exit Lorene).

Mary Frances - Speaking of money and saving, let me show you what 4-H Club has saved me. (Shows socks). Remember that week-end at Pantano when I darned six pairs of socks? By knowing how to darn, I have saved $1.00 on my sock bill. That's enough to buy that book I wanted. (Knock) Come in. (Enter Lucy May with candy).

Lucy May - Have some candy, girls.

Mary Frances - Well, if the candy tastes as good as our little cook looks, it's mighty good.

Betty - Yes, doesn't she look nice? We can tell she has been a 4-H Club girl. She's dressed neatly for cooking in her cap and apron.

Lucy May - This is my 4-H Club cap and apron that I always use for cooking.

Mary Frances - How different she looks from the girl across the hall. I saw her the other evening trying to make fudge in her kimona. Wait a minute and I'll show you how she did. First, she'd stir the fudge--then wrap her kimona around her--then push her hair back from her eyes. Much as I like fudge, I decided I didn't want any of hers.

(Knock) (Enter Cleotilde)

Cleotilde - My team just won the baseball game!!

Mary Louise - Hurrah! for our athlete! You know we can't all win blue ribbons in cooking and sewing, but Cleotilde is there when it comes to playing baseball, tennis and other sports. That makes one healthy. Health is one of the H's in 4-H Club, you know. It is essential to all good 4-H Clubbers!

(Knock - Enter June)

Lucy May - What! Another new dress?

June - Oh, no. It's just been washed nicely. Remember in 4-H Club when we learned to do all our own laundry?

Mary Louise - Yes, I remember, and how I disliked it, but I'm glad I did it. If I hadn't I would have been like a girl I saw in the basement laundry. She soaked her lovely white linen with her colored anklets! The color in the anklets faded and--Oh, my! her clothes were ruined!

Mary Frances - Say, just think (Knock) Come in.

(Enter Mary Bejarano)

Mary Bejarano - Oh, girls, just look! This week my article was printed on the front page!

All - Let's see! (Grab the paper).

Mary Bejarano - I'm so grateful for all that practice I had writing news notes for Tantanio Stitch-In-Time 4-H Club. Remember how the newspaper men at the Arizona Daily Star and Tucson Daily Citizen helped us?

Mary Frances - I just started to say, just think how 4-H Club has helped us here at school!

Mary Bejarano - Yes, I have earned enough money by writing articles for the newspaper to buy all my books. And I never could have done it if I hadn't had all that help in 4-H Club as reporter.

(Knock - Enter Lorene)

Lucy May - Is the party over so soon?

Lorene - Oh, no. I never got to the party. I was just a few blocks from school, when I met Grace Brown.

Mary Bejarano - She's the little girl whose mother is so sick?

Lorene - Yes, and her mother is worse. They need help.

All - Let's all go help!

Lucy May - I feel just like cooking supper for all those children.

Mary Louise - And I'll clean the house.

Mary Frances - Yes, we'll all go, and that will "pledge our hearts to greater loyalty". That brings in all four H's in our good old 4-H Club. Mary Louise's Music Appreciation laurels and Mary Bejarano's reporting show training of the HEAD; Betty's sewing, Lucy May's cooking and June's laundry, and my darning certainly show skillful training of the HANDS; Cleotilde's ball games all show training for HEALTH; Helping the sick and needy show training of the HEART.

Camp Clubs gave work for the boys while the girls in the community were busy sewing. Boys made many friends with their Camp work, the cactus garden at Empire attracted much attention before a white mule crawled into the school yard and stamped the plants out of the ground. The boys had hikes and cooked some of the foods they had learned to cook in first year Camp Club.

At County Achievement Day they exhibited specimens of grasses, flowers, cactus and leaves, all named correctly along with drawings and notes regarding the plants.

Pantano (Lone club members)	2	2	100%

Progress and Development

This is the first time we have had a Baking Club in Pima County. Since our school buildings are not equipped for baking it has not been possible to have these clubs at school during the school year. During the summer vacation Mrs. E. O. Watkins, who has a club girl of her own, volunteered to take the girls into her own kitchen for club meetings. Seven girls from the Sunnyside Club completed the work and won many favorable comments because they had learned how to make biscuits, muffins, cornbread, and pancakes with the variations. With the knowledge gained they were able to prepare breakfast for the family which was appreciated by the mothers concerned.

Two lone club members, Lucy May and Mary Louise Echols, also did the baking club work with their mother as leader and with office calls and suggestions from the Agent.

The girls found the work interesting and taught the family a number of things about baked quick breads as they took their score card to the table with them and had the family help them with the score. The mothers learned some of the reasons why their baking sometimes was a success and sometimes almost a failure.

SAHUARITA BLUE JAYS By MABLE LAND

Miss Evalyn Bentley visited the club and brought Mrs. Agnes Krentz to see our sewing club. Miss Bentley gave us an interesting talk concerning useful Christmas gifts. She told us how nice it would be to make a Christmas present for members of our families and our friends. When she finished she showed us about twenty things which we could make and give away for Christmas presents and would be very useful to those to whom they were given. Some of the club members are planning on making some of the many beautiful things which were shown to us. She also gave us some pretty patterns.

Mrs. R. A. Land also visited our sewing club.

All members were present at our last meeting.

The boys are to make a breadboard as their first project in the shop.

SOPORI WILLING WORKERS

January 18, a house burned down at the Ahumado ranch. Mr. Ahumado, the owner, said the fire started by an overheated stove.

January 18, Mr. Gill of Sasabe took 200 head of cattle to his ranch. These cattle were taken from Buenos Aires to the Gill ranch for stocking the pastures.

EMPIRE MERRY MAKERS

By Frank E. Dojaquez

The Empire boys and girls held their regular meeting on Monday morning, January 22, instead of on Thursday afternoon, as it was the only time Miss Bentley could visit us this week. Mrs. Krentz, who was our leader last year, came with Miss Bentley.

Miss Bentley brought us three small century plants which we set out in our cactus garden. She also brought us some axolis bulbs to set out. We were very glad to get the century plants for we didn't have any in our cactus garden.

Miss Bentley and Mrs. Krentz brought their lunches with them. During the noon hour the boys and girls did stunts for a banana and sandwiches. Mrs. Krentz gave each boy and girl who could stand on their head a banana. Those who stood on their heads were Agnes Young, Edward Amarillas, Ray Dojaquez and Robert Dojaquez. These boys and girl must have practiced some, for last week when Mr. Fitzgerald was here Robert Dojaquez was the only one besides Mr. Fitzgerald who could do it. The boys and girls who could not stand on their head did other stunts for a banana and sandwich.

Saturday, January 20, Mrs. Bateman went to Tucson. She visited Miss Bentley at her office. While she was there Miss Bentley gave her the third-year music appreciation records. We are glad to get them. The third and fourth-year members are becoming familiar with them. One of their favorites is "Berceuse," from the opera "Jocelyn" by the French composer Godard. Berceuse means lullaby in French.

Monday, January 22, Alice Getzwiller spent the evening with Lorene Ward.

Tuesday, January 23, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pennington motored to Tucson on business.

Mary Bejarano writes:

Sunday, January 21, J. Garcia arrived in our community after a month spent in Mexico. Arturo Rios is back in our community after a few days spent at El Paso, Texas.

Wednesday, January 25, in our club meeting our president, Mary F. Foster, made a suggestion that next Wednesday, January 31, our yell leader, Alice Getzwiller, teach us some yells. This was put into a motion by Alice Getzwiller and seconded by Lorene Ward. This motion carried. Ten minutes of our time was turned over to our song leader, Alice Getzwiller, who taught us the song "Trees." The 4-H Club members are going to sing this song in our Arbor Day program Friday, February 2. The third-year 4-H Club music memory selections were played during our meeting.

ARBOR DAY AND TREES

By Mary F. Foster

Arbor Day comes this year on Friday, February 2. (February 2 is also Ground Hog's Day.) The idea of setting apart an annual day for less plains of Nebraska. J. Sterling planting trees was born on the tree-Morton, who later became United States Secretary of Agriculture, realizing what value, beauty and comfort trees would add to his state, induced the authorities of Nebraska to proclaim the first Arbor Day in 1872. Over one million trees were planted at that time, and April 22, Mr. Morton's birthday, was later set aside for the annual repetition of such tree planting, and made a state holiday.

Arbor Day is now observed in most of the states. In many it is a legal holiday, and in others its observance is general, though there is no legal enactment. The date depends on the climate of the different sections.

In addition to the planting of trees Arbor Day is now made an occasion to impress upon the people of the nation, young and old, the responsibility that rests on them to beautify their yards, neighborhoods, parks and public grounds. It is also intended to cultivate an appreciation for natural beauty, especially for trees, such as inspired Sergeant Joyce Kilmer, who was killed in action July 10, 1918, when he wrote the following, entitled "Trees":

"I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;
A tree that looks at God all day
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;
Upon whose bosom snow has lain,
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree."

These words were set to music by Oscar Rasbach. Both men were Americans. "Trees" is one of the selections in the third-year music memory contest.

EMPIRE MERRY MAKERS

By Frank E. Dojaquez

Robert Amarillas, the president of the Boys' club, was out of school three days last week. He had to help drive some cattle about three miles the other side of Sabuarita. The cattle belong to Mr. Bill Douglas. He wanted the cattle there because they were poor here.

The girls of our club have the machine fixed up so it will sew. The machine needed a belt, presser foot, and needle. It was very dirty so they cleaned it with gasoline, then oiled it. Annie Young is making over a dress so she uses the machine nearly every noon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Servin, of Oakland ranch, left for El Paso Tuesday, January 30. They will be gone for several days.

Mrs. Margaret Greenberg and daughter, Isabell, have moved to Mesa. They were staying at Oakland ranch.

Mr. C. R. Nally has six new calves. One calf is about three months old and the others are about two or three weeks old.

Mr. H. B. Thurber brought some new posts to the school this week. They are to be used for the school fence. Part of the old fence has been down for a long time. We are very glad it is going to be fixed for it will keep the cattle out.

SOPORI WILLING WORKERS

By Thelma Kinsley

At the Sopori Willing Workers 4-H club meeting Tuesday afternoon, January 30, the girls spent their time judging the finished slips and stocking darns. They looked very nice, but when we had judged each one according to the points to check in our instruction book, we found that there was lots of room for improvement. Following are the points to check by which we judged the slips:

1. The slip should be clean and smoothly pressed.
2. The seams should not draw, and should be neatly and smoothly done.
3. The finish at the top should be neatly and smoothly done.
4. If straps are used, they should be securely and neatly fastened.
5. The hem at the bottom of the slip should be the same width all the way. The fullness should be evenly taken up and not in large pleats.
6. The machine stitching should be well done.

We had the second year records for Music Appreciation this week. We are able to recognize them but we find we have to work hard on the spelling of the composers' names and the stories about the selections.

The county nurse, Miss Potter, came to visit us Tuesday, January 30. She gave us a list of the underweight children in our school. We hope to get some milk and cocoa for them in the near future.

Albert Rodriguez has returned to Tucson where he will stay with his parents and attend the Davis school. He had been staying with his uncle, Mr. Rodriguez of Sopori.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Williams, arrived Thursday morning, January 25, from Chicago, Illinois, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Kinsley at Amado, Arizona. Mr. Williams is Mrs. Kinsley's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinsley and a party attended the President's ball at Nogales, Arizona. They reported a good crowd at the dance.

EMPIRE MERRY MAKERS

By Angelita Young

Miss Evalyn Bentley and Miss Margaret Closson visited us last Thursday afternoon. Miss Bentley showed us samples of first year 4-H club work and also two very nice laundry bags which are easily made. Everyone was anxious to know more about achievement day which is to be at the fair grounds on April 21, so Miss Bentley talked to us about what would be done and answered all our questions. At the close of the meeting Miss Bentley took a picture of Angel Young on her horse which she rides to school. Angel is our present news reporter.

Mrs. Harriet Wallace Ashby sent us a picture by Miss Bentley. We want to thank her for it. Mrs. Ashby is a sister to Miss Josephine Wallace, who gave us a picture of the San Xavier mission several years ago.

The camp club boys are having a lot of fun with their work now. They are busy finishing their match holders which they started about two weeks ago. The holders are made from pieces of cholla cactus. They sawed the pieces so they are about one and one-half or two inches long. After that they cleaned all the holes out so they were very clean, then most of the holes in the center had to be made larger. The boys used nails and knives to clean out the holes. Another good way to clean them is to put the pieces of cactus in a bucket of water with yeast in it and keep in a warm place. The yeast will work everything out of the holes. After the holes are cleaned good the boys sandpapered the holders. They found that coarse sandpaper was the best to start with. Next they should be varnished or stained and shellacked. A piece of pasteboard is glued on one end so the matches will stay in. A small glass is very nice to set inside but so far the boys have been unable to find any small enough for the holders they have made.

Annie Young went to Tucson last Saturday with Ramon and Josephine Romero. While in Tucson she went to a show and after the show she went to a dance near Tanque Verde.

got Augustine Romero so he could take them across the line to do some shopping. After they finished shopping they ate their supper then came home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee who have been staying at Oakland ranch, left for Iowa Monday morning.

Miss Margaret Closson who has visited us several times is leaving for her home in Indiana soon. We wish her a pleasant trip.

EMPIRE MERRY MAKERS

By Angelita Young

The Empire Merry Makers are busy finishing their 4-H work which must be in Miss Bentley's office by April 7 in order to be judged before Achievement day. We hope to have about 50 articles to send.

Mr. Pattburg, who is staying at Mr. C. R. Nally's ranch, took two pictures of the pupils in Empire school last week.

Seymour Thurber went to Tucson Saturday, March 24. He went to a movie while there and enjoyed it very much.

Mr. C. Christenson and three other men have gone up on Old Baldy for a few days. They borrowed a burro from Martin Ruiz to pack their food and bedding on.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Blankenship of Phoenix spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Downs.

Angel Young, a third year club member, has been studying about clothing along with her sewing. She learned some very interesting things and wrote the following report:

"The story about clothing may not seem interesting to many people, but as we read the story about when cloth began we think it is very interesting.

"The first clothing was made from animal skin and leaves of trees. Weaving is one of the oldest arts and started many years ago, but it is not known who first thought of it.

"The women were very skillful weavers and some of the weaving of very ancient times was done very well. Some of it was just as good as some of the best done now even though it was done much slower.

"In 1732 weaving was developed in England. A few years later Charles Wyatt invented a machine for spinning by rollers. In 1784 Cartwright invented the power loom which was not very good at first but has been improved greatly since.

"The weaving was done just as it is today, it is weaved over and under. The threads which go over and under are called the woof and the others are called the web, or the chain. In making the weaving first the warp threads are fastened on the loom and the woof threads are wound on a spool and put into a shuttle. Then the warp threads are lifted and lowered so as to pass the shuttle over and under from side to side until the weaving is finished. There are other kinds of weaving besides this one.

"Sewing was very hard in the ancient days and people wore clothing that needed very little sewing. The first needles were made of bone and ivory and had no eye. They were used to punch holes through which the thread was drawn. When the eye of the needle was invented it made it much easier to make clothing.

"There weren't any sewing machines so people tried to invent one, but it was not until 1846 that Elias Howe invented the first good one. After the power loom and the sewing machine were invented clothes were much more easily made. And so the years went by until mills and factories were made and nobody had to spin and weave their own cloth. At first there were no mills in our country so all the cloth was brought from England where big factories were located. Every home had to have its spinning wheel and loom for the cloth from England cost so much. The farmers raised sheep and flax and the women made woolen and linen cloth. Now there are thousands of mills and factories in the New England states and large eastern cities. The wool is sent from Texas and other western states where lots of sheep are raised. Cotton is raised in the south. The linen comes from flax, and silk comes from the silk worms in China and Japan. These are the most common materials.

"The people of today can be well clothed without having to work as much as the people of long ago. This is because we have so many wonderful tools and machines and there are so many ways of transporting the raw and finished materials to different parts of the country. Also men have become skillful workmen because they have learned to do one thing and do it well."

A note from Mrs. Agnes Krentz, who is now in Phoenix, states that she may be detained in that city for some weeks since her husband is looking after some interests there. Mrs. Krentz regrets very much that she is not in Pima county visiting 4-H clubs along with the home demonstration agent at this season of the year.

The home demonstration agent announces that the county-wide music memory contest will be held Saturday morning, April 14, from 10 to 11:30 in the recital hall of the Temple of Music and Art, South Scott street. Fritz Laos from Duncan, Ariz., came to visit his cousin, Johnny Angulo, at the Santa Lucia ranch, which is about three miles from school. Fritz has been coming to school. He is leaving Wednesday, March 28, for Tucson where he will meet his mother, Mrs. F. Laos, and his brothers before returning to Duncan.

Last Wednesday, during the noon period, some of the smaller girls went out of the school yard to hunt for mesquite gum. Adelina Rodriguez found a baby rabbit under a tree. She had almost stepped on it. They brought it to school. Thelma Kinsley brought a basket filled with some warm rags in which to keep it, and milk to feed it. It was lots of fun to watch her feed it with an eye dropper, and to watch it learn to hop. She took it home over the week-end and in the night it hopped away.

Following is a 4-H club story by one of the members of the Sopori Willing Workers' club:

MY 4-H CLUB STORY

Antonia Encinas—Age 12

I am a second year club member from Sopori school. I have been very interested in the 4-H club work because I have learned to make my clothes without having my mother to make them. Besides I like to make them myself.

We started our 4-H Sewing club on October 3, 1933. We elected our officers right away. They were as follows: Rose Vega, president; Thelma Kinsley, vice president and reporter; Felicidad Rodriguez, secretary; Josephine Jackson, cheer leader. Miss Genevieve Romo is our local leader.

Our work was exhibited at the fair grounds in Tucson on April 21.

We had a music memory contest April 14 at the Temple of Music and Art in Tucson. Rose Vega took the third year test, Josephine Jackson the second year and Felicidad Rodriguez the first year.

They all got second prize. I think they did very good.

We have been working very hard, not only to see if we can get the cup some time, but to see if we can improve in our work. Our motto is, "Make the Best Better."

The prizes I won on my sewing were: First club prize on my dress, and second county prize; first club prize and second county prize on my slip; on my elective, which was a laundry bag, I got third prize. I did not get anything on my patch or on my stocking darn.

I think it is nice for everybody to be in 4-H club work because it helps you a lot, not only in sewing but in many other things. It will help you all through your life.

AMPHITHEATRE 4-H CLUB

My 4-H Club Story for 1934

By Eva Tefft

I joined the 4-H club because before the club was established at Amphitheatre I was deeply interested in 4-H work as I often listened to the radio programs.

Our leaders are Mrs. Martha Adolphson, Mrs. Ethel Kitt, and Mrs. Kathleen Perry. At our primary meeting, held October 9, we discussed the goods to be used and some of the things that usually happen to a newly established club. At our next meeting, our first business meeting, held October 16, we elected our officers, they were: President, Winifred Partidge; vice president, Beatrice Kilburn; song leader, Mary Jane Horton; later Dorothy Rockwood; game leader, Faun Smith; yell leader, Anna Gates; secretary, Mae Eggleston, who passed away; Dorothy Rockwood replaced her, and reporter, Eva Tefft.

During this year's work I have taken a moderate part in the activities of the club. During the past year I have been our reporter which has been of great advantage to me. Doing this work I have improved my English by using correct English, correct punctuation, and learned that to make a successful reporter I must write my news so that my readers may enjoy and know what is going on in our school.

I have taken part in the assembly, P. T. A. and achievement day programs.

SOPORI WILLING WORKERS

By Thelma Kinsley

We were very much surprised to learn about a mother scorpion being devoured by her offspring. We thought it would be interesting to other children in the county.

The mother scorpion, donated recently to Dr. Robert Streets of the University of Arizona, is a member of the arachnid group of animals. It was found in a C. C. C. camp near Tucson by a friend of Dr. Streets, who turned it over to him for observation. It soon gave birth to several hundred young scorpions. Immediately the young began their feast, which spells death to the mother scorpion. Tiny and nearly helpless the weaker scorpions were pushed off the mother's back by their larger brothers and sisters and died of starvation. It was a matter of the survival of the fittest. The more fortunate ones began to eat, heartlessly, the body of their mother.

Mother scorpion became more and more sluggish, but yesterday after more than two-thirds of her body had been eaten away by her children, she was still alive. She will not live much longer, however, for now the young scorpions have no further use for her, and abandoning her dead carcass, they will seek other forms of nourishment.

J. E. Champion and Harry Nash, Negroes from Phoenix, were apprehended by Customs Patrol Inspectors R. C. Lane, T. S. Simpson, R. C. Watt and A. B. Whipple at Kinsley Bros. station, on the Tucson-Nogales road Tuesday. At the time of the arrest the two were in possession of twenty bottles of cocaine, each containing one-fourth ounce of narcotics. An investigation of the past criminal record of the two men was made and it was learned that both have served sentences for former violation of the narcotic laws of the United States.

The customs officers had been waiting at the Kinsley station all the afternoon. When the Nogales-Tucson stage stopped there a thorough search was made. This quickly led to their arrest.

MY SECOND YEAR CAMPING CLUB

My name is Armando Bejarano. I am secretary of the Pantano Camping club. We drew pictures of cacti and Arizona plants. We used to go out on the hills and look for grasses to mount.

In the club we studied grasses, cacti and different kinds of flowers. We studied where they grew. I drew some plants of Arizona. I drew a giant cactus, a yucca plant that is something like a palm, a sotol, a soap plant, a prickly pear and a century plant. The century plant is used in Mexico to make liquor. It is wise to study plants because they are so interesting. For example, the mesquite tree is used for fuel, fence posts, corrals and many other necessary things.

I like achievement day because I saw lots of friends and looked at the work of other clubs. I was glad to hear some of the club programs.

On my pictures I got first prize and on my mounting of grasses I received first prize. I did very well in all my work. I didn't make any more pictures because the club started so late.

The club has helped me very much. I know how to patch pants and how to fry potatoes or make camp fires safer. It also teaches us how to select camping places and how to take care of our things.

If you hear a strange humming noise wherever you go don't be alarmed, it is just the sewing machines that are being used all over the district to get the girls and boys ready for the opening of school Monday, September 17. If you take down the telephone receiver you will probably hear something like this, "May I borrow that pattern you used for making that pink dress of Mary's?"

"Surely you can, but I changed the pattern quite a lot. It was really supposed to be pleated but it would have been so much trouble to iron, so I just gathered it. I'm starting a blue and white dress today that I think will be right cute. My, oh me! These girls take lots of clothes."

"Yes, they do but Jane is helping this year. I tell you that 4-H sewing club work has helped her a lot and helps me too."

"I'm in favor of this 4-H club work too."

"That baking club has helped me because now the girls can make biscuits or muffins for the family if I'm busy with something else."

"Yes, I'm so sorry the club had to stop but maybe they can start again later."

"Well, I must get to work. I'll send Mary for that pattern right away and thanks so much for letting me use it. Goodbye."

"Goodbye, call me if you have any trouble with the pattern."

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pennington of our community attended a dance at the Sky Line hall in Dragoon.

Miss Bentley has returned from a trip to Chicago where she visited the 1934 World's fair and reports that the exhibits and other attractions hold much for the 4-H club boys and girls as well as for the adults. The hand work of club members as shown in some of the state buildings is an inspiration to visitors and the records of work done are full of information in regard to the work of the one million boys and girls enrolled in 4-H club work.

Thousands of rural juniors visited the fair, especially during farm week, and will carry the educational value to their home states. Perhaps the very best thing shown, aside from the actual work, was the energy and ingenuity displayed by the youth of our nation in making their own recreational equipment which ranged from the soap-box auto to the life-size elephant hauled on a large truck in the junior's hand-made circus parade. The elephant, with his swinging trunk, is a long step from the first small hand-made toys, but shows the necessity for the training of the hand and head as well as heart and health in reaching higher ambitions.

There were too many splendid exhibits to be described in a few brief words. Suffice it to say the fair is an educational factor of which you will hear more.

EMPIRE MERRY MAKERS By Seymour Thurber

Our club members have been working on tea towels for the past two weeks. Most of the girls and boys have been putting in extra time making elephants and giraffes for Christmas presents.

The varieties of transportation to the school have not changed this year. The bus is making its usual two trips, into Box canyon and then back to Gardner canyon. The children coming on the first bus are Annie and Edward Amarillas, Agnes Young, Alejandro Romero, George Roger, and Augustine and Frank Romero. Those on the second bus are Hortense, Camilla, Ray, and Robert Dojaquez, Monta Carol and Edwin Gardner, and Jackie and Billy Parish. Seymour Thursber is riding his bicycle. Isabel Greenburg is riding her black horse, Prince.

Three pupils from the Tucson schools have enrolled at Empire: George Roger, Jackie and Billy Parish.

Miss Bentley met with our 4-H club on Thursday. A number of the mothers and neighbors were present and we hope to have a club organized for the women. Those present were much interested in demonstration work as presented. Some models for house furnishings were shown and notes taken by the women. Some suggestions for simple Christmas gifts were also shown by Miss Bentley. The Sonoita group will meet with the Empire women at the home of Mrs. Homer Chaffee on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m., November 14. At that time the home demonstration agent will discuss with the group the making of inexpensive gifts. The women are requested to bring pencil and paper for note taking and pattern copying.

Those present at the Thursday meeting were Mesdames C. R. Nally, J. R. Gardner, C. A. Gardner, J. H. Buck, and M. S. Greenburg.

In order that Miss Bentley may meet with us we have changed our club meeting from Thursday to Wednesday. She will meet with us Wednesday morning and with the women in the afternoon.

We had a great surprise Thursday, October 11, at the P. T. A. meeting. Mr. Clyde Nicholson, from the American Legion, came out and presented us a cup which we won as first prize in last year's marching unit. In 1930 we won first place in the marching unit, in 1931 we won first on the float and second in the marching unit. We were very glad to have the honor of receiving the cup.

We had a new teacher Monday, October 14, her name is Mrs. McFarland. She has the 4-A and 5th grades.

Some of the club members are going to write to some of the 4-H club members in the northern part of the state. They will write to us first and we will answer them. We will publish some of the letters which they send us.

MY EXPERIENCE WITH THE 4-H BAKING CLUB

By Mary Louise Echols

My sister and I had just returned from Texas last summer when we found a letter awaiting us from our county home demonstration agent, Miss Evalyn Bentley.

She had made arrangements for us to become lone members of the 4-H Baking club. We had many times wished for such an opportunity. So we began taking turns helping mother with the baking.

We started with the bread our father likes best — corn bread. We had made this before but the family enjoys that made by the 4-H recipe much more. At first we followed the directions carefully, but we have made it so often we now have it snugly stored in our heads.

We chose as our second demonstration one which seemed the simplest of all; plain muffins. They were really an addition to our home baking for mother only made them in the form of cakes. We also made all-bran and cornmeal muffins.

The hardest thing about making pancakes was having to get out of bed so early to make them for breakfast. Mother says that 4-H pancakes are the lightest that she has ever eaten.

We saved the biscuits until last because we knew that it would take more time to learn to knead the dough gently. One morning when I had used too much liquid for my drop biscuits, my daddy said he supposed I dropped my dough too far.

Competition was keen between us for as each demonstration was completed it was placed on the table and graded according to our 4-H cook books.

I have completed three years work with the 4-H Garment Making club, one year with the Baking club, and have started my first year of canning. During this school term I shall continue my garment making project and next summer take up my baking and canning again.

Mary Bejarano is our champion reporter. For the past three years she has not missed a single week of having her notes in the county extension office in time to be typed for the week-end edition of the Arizona Daily Star. Mary is a booster for publicity work and believes that it takes publicity to put a community on the map. This she has done for Pantano. Aside from her reporting she has been a worker in the Pantano Stitch-In-Time, an officer, and booster for club work.

PUBLICITY FACTS

By Mary C. Bejarano

In Pima county we have had a County 4-H club reporting project for three years. Our news notes are published in the week-end edition of one of the Tucson daily papers. I have been reporter for our club, the Pantano Stitch-in-Time.

Miss Evalyn A. Bentley, our home demonstration agent calls me "champion reporter," for during these three years I have not failed to have my news notes in each week.

I am going to give you some essential points in club reporting.

For writing news begin the story by telling what the story is about.

The opening paragraph, or lead, is the most important part of the news story.

Tell the reader the nature of the event, the persons, and the things concerned, time, place, cause and results. Answer these questions: What, who, when, where, why and how?

Tell your story simply and naturally. Make it brief, clear, and accurate. Write events in your story in order of their news value.

Always have the best interest of your community or your club at heart. Find stories that will help to boost their welfare.

In news writing tell the truth and verify every statement to make sure it is absolutely correct.

Study your stories after they are printed to see if the editor made any changes. Read stories other than your own, and study the way they are written.

Be regular and prompt in sending in your stories. We should always take pains to give exact information and facts.

It is always a good idea to include as many names as possible in a story, especially names of local people.

I think that a 4-H club news reporter can have a wonderful opportunity to accomplish good results both for himself and his club, also for his community.

I feel that the office of reporter is a very important one, for it is through club news notes that community interest is gained.

New members also are gained by becoming interested through news notes.

So it behooves a club reporter to do his best at all times.

4-H Club Leaders Met On Saturday

At 11-12-34

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

TIME: September to September.

PLACE: County-wide, all communities where Extension work has been done were included.

Organization and History of the Project

Work in this project was begun when the Agent first began work in Pima County. The groups far away from Tucson feel the need of recreation and inspiration and this is what we have tried to supply to each community. One good get-together for each group in the county has been our goal for each year. The rural groups have appreciated the service and the requests have grown more numerous each year.

Progress and Development

There has been a steady growth in the development of appreciation for the better things in music, art and educational and inspirational lectures. We are learning that in the work done with the many communities that extension work cannot be all of the absolute project type, but must include some of the things that belong to recreation and higher life. The same facts have been brought out by Dr. Warburton in his request sent to all Extension workers that they listen in to the radio talks which deal especially with subjects along the line of the supplementary interests to agriculture and home making, as Art in America.

Miscellaneous work for the communities has consisted in helping some of the members in the use of parliamentary law; books and pamphlets on various subjects have been loaned in order to help them in leading a portion of the meeting; and equipment was located and provided for a garden improvement evening.

Some of the meetings planned by the Agent and speakers secured for same were:

At Marana, January 10, Dr. Eleanor Johnson, Head of the Home Economics Department, University of Arizona, talked to the women about the Pure Food and Drugs Act.

At Marana, January 5, Miss Ethyl Lobban, Tucson teacher of singing, gave a costume recital which was enjoyed by 110 people.

At Amphitheatre, January 12, Rollin Pease, from the College of Music at the University of Arizona, gave a voice recital which was enjoyed by about the same number.

The Marana Women's Club asked for a second talk by Dr. Lockwood as the one given in February 1933 was so enthusiastically received. On February 14 he talked on the subject, "Juvenile Literature", giving a very comprehensive discussion of the subject. A list of books was given along with the ages when these are most attractive to the child.
H.D.A. County Pima. State-Arizona

A musical program for the Amphitheatre community the evening of February 19 was given to a crowded house. Miss Ethyl Lobban and pupils gave a costume recital which was so popular that a repetition was requested. This was given in an adjoining community.

At the annual County Farm Bureau dinner and meeting Dr. Lockwood gave his talk on "Arizona's Place in the Sun".

By request of the Marana Women's Club, the Agent secured Mrs. H. L. Shantz to talk to their group on the subject of "Teaching World Peace". The talk was well received.

Mrs. Katherine Kitt, of the Art Department of the University of Arizona, talked to the Marana women, high school students and faculty on the subject of Art. She gave a very practical talk and told many of her experiences in Spain, all of which was much appreciated. As the older members said, "We stay at home but we do enjoy getting a little glimpse of another land".

One recreation meeting was planned for the group on Ft. Lowell Road. This consisted of pictures shown by the use of a reflectoscope. Different members who had vacation trips in Arizona and elsewhere collected pictures and a very pleasant and profitable evening resulted. The H.D.A. supplied the lantern and also ran it for the performance.

In connection with our extension activities we find a number of cooperating agencies with very helpful programs. Sessions of the state convention of the F.T.A. were attended when it was possible to work them in along with routine work already scheduled. Some help was received from the talks of Miss Sowers, although we feel that these national workers do not always get down on a plane with the field workers so as to be able to help solve their most difficult problems. However, we always receive much inspiration in a general way, so find their visits helpful.

At the state program of the Arizona Federated Women's Clubs held in Tucson, the Agent gave a report on her work as district chairman of Family Finance, Division of the American Home. The report, in part, as printed in the Club Woman follows:

(copy)

"The most important question in America today is the management of individual income. "It is more important than any of the so-called Big Questions debated in Congress, because it underlies them all," says Will Payne.

The management of the income rests with the wife as it is usually the husband who earns. Hence, it is essential that the wife shall be trained in both saving and spending because it is hard to be brave hearted when your pockets are empty.

H.D.A. Pima County, State of Arizona

The homemaker can do much toward placing the homes of the Nation on a sound financial basis and when that is done the National Budget will balance itself.

As Chairman of Family Finance under the American Home Department, may I urge that each club give attention at one meeting at least to this subject of Family Finance? Splendid material is supplied in the outline, "Money Talks".

The family budget covers a wide field and much time could be spent on buymanship alone. Next consider saving, for what purpose and how shall savings be invested? The problem of safe investments follows, and we cannot forget general welfare work because we are striving for a well rounded financial program. In working toward this goal we must not forget to include some training for the children.

When Family Finance occupies such an important place in the group life which constitutes our Nation, should not more time be devoted to the study of the many phases of the problem?

County Picnic

The request for this picnic for the homemakers came from the women themselves. They wished to visit the University and see some of the work of which they had heard during our demonstration meetings. Forty women attended and enjoyed every minute of the day according to their own report. Lunch was served under the palm trees just west of Pima Hall. Director Ross spoke briefly to the women during the lunch hour. Later we had brief reports from the different communities in regard to the Extension work that had been done with the groups. Reports were brief but concise and they were the most enthusiastic we have ever had from a group. There were more hands held up when we asked for practices which had been adopted and constructive suggestions for future work. This group was composed of those members who have been most regular in attendance and who have shown more evidence of leadership. The idea of getting them together was for the purpose of helping to increase interest in the various communities and we felt it was better to work with a smaller group rather than to have a large number present, and this group was about the correct size for enthusiasm and constructive work.

In connection with the picnic a county chairman of the homemakers' group, Mrs. W. Spaulding, has been chosen. It will be her duty to help enthuse the groups in doing regular project work.

Under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Thomas, assistant head resident of Maricopa Hall, the group visited Maricopa Hall and Pima Hall and were told something of the management in both halls. The mothers were very enthusiastic over the cooperative work in house keeping which is being done in Pima Hall. Visits to the Home Economics foods and clothing laboratories, also to the nutrition laboratory, proved full of interest. The women went home, as one of them expressed it, "with something new to think about".

Before they separated for the day they voted to make the picnic for homemakers an annual event to be held the first Wednesday in May at the University.

Community Vacation School

This three weeks school, held in the Roskrue building and all work done by volunteers, was assisted at the request of the director. The Agent found a worker to give the health teaching. Material for this project was supplied from the County Extension Office as we have gathered a variety of helps during the years which have passed. Mrs. Evangeline Urquides, who did this work, was very well received by the school as they felt she was well prepared indeed.

The school also asked for help in securing speakers who would interest children of junior and high school age, and the benefit of the Agent's experience was given in recommending those who did the work. We also helped to find someone to direct the music.

The teaching force recommended by the H.D.A. was taken from our rural club leaders with whom we have worked for so many years that we know their capability.

Farm Bureau Meetings

The County Farm Bureau meetings were attended each month when projects chiefly related to Agricultural economics were discussed.

Cotton Acreage Reduction Conference

The Agent attended the conference in regard to the reduction of the cotton acreage as described by Mr. Cobb. At this meeting we also secured some ideas on how home demonstration work is done in New Mexico from the visiting Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Dee Maier. The exchange of ideas was found quite helpful.

Plant Exchange

Beginning in January a plant exchange has been carried on in all the communities where work has been done. We have exchanged violets, Michaelmas daisies, oriental poppy plants, chrysanthemums of every color and hue, Shasta daisies, honeysuckle, cactus, cannas, verbenas, tulips, stocks, larkspur, and all kinds of garden seeds for flowers and vines. All of these plants have been donated, and the H.D.A. helped in the exchange.

H.D.A.
Pima County, State of Arizona

Although this has required much extra time on her part she feels that it has been well worth while as during these times of depression women feel that they cannot afford to buy and yet they wish to beautify their homes.

We have found so much enthusiasm along this line it has been decided to make this a permanent exchange continuing from year to year as occasion demands. This makes a good way for the women to become acquainted and they add a little sentiment to the gardens thus formed, calling them Memory Gardens. From the plant exchange we hope to advance to garden clubs where a serious study will be made of the home vegetable garden as well as the beautification of the home.

Flower Show Marana

The Marana women held a flower show. Mr. Fred Draper acted as judge and gave them some very helpful criticisms. The Agent talked about flower arrangement and some of the past history and romance attached to flowers. Old fashioned nosegays were prepared and presented to the officers of the Club. The old fashioned flowers were used as much as possible, lace paper doilies and lavender paper handkerchiefs were used for trimming.

Judge at Fair

The Agent acted as judge of the foods exhibit at the Young Fair, Gila County, October 12 and 13.

Extension Conference

The Annual Extension Conference attended the first week in January was the most helpful one thus far in our work.

Emergency Relief

Conferences have been held with Mrs. Myrland and the County School Superintendent, Mrs. Constance F. Smith, in regard to the emergency education work. Tentative plans have been made for the work and the centers in the county where it is most needed. In connection with this the Agent has been asked to give some information in regard to workers who have applied for the work. Some of the rural women who have been in our groups a number of years could be given a very good recommendation so this has been done.

OUTLOOK AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The outlook for extension work is even better than last year as the rural population feels a need for the projects stressed. They say we are meeting the problems in the homes during this time of stress and almost every week some fact is brought out which proves that demonstration work does bring results. The testimony most often given is, "Your work has helped me in learning to save both time and money through better management." Both of these factors are necessary as time must often be divided between the duties of the home and work outside in order to provide a budget which will cover the actual needs.

A change has been made in our program to suit the emergency which exists and other modifications of projects will no doubt be necessary. But on the whole no great changes will be made.

Both Junior and Adult work will go forward with the same projects varied to suit the needs. Emphasis will be placed upon the economic side as there will be much need for a wise use of money, materials and time. All projects carried during the past year will again be included in our suggested program of work which is appended to this report.

A complete story of each project is obtained by reading the publicity notes written by the agent.
